SENTIMENT FOR DRY PLANK IN PLATFORM IS REPORTED OVERWHELMING

DALLAS, May 7.—(AP)—Delegates elected at the precinct conventions of the democratic party Saturday will go to the county conventions of this state tomorrow for the greater part uninstructed as to individual candidates, the tabulation of results of more than 3,000 precincts reporting shows. While both sides claim victory, on account of the nature of some of the resolutions adopted, it was generally conceded that the "harmony" wing had won a sweeping victory over the constitutional or bone-dry democrats.

Returns from 71 counties comprising the bulk of the voting [illegible] of the state gave 1,481 delegates [illegible]instructed, 1,234 instructed to [illegible] for a dry plank and for a candidate in sympathy with prohibition enforcement, 326 instructed for Gov. Smith of New York, 93 for Jesse Jones of Houston, 45 for Governor Dan Moody, who has already declined a favorite son role, 17 for Senator Walsh of Montana and 3 for Gov. Dohahey of Ohio.

Harmony in Dallas.

Dallas county, home of the constitutional democratic movement, was carried by the "harmony" faction, led by Governor Moody, whom the constitutional democrats charge with playing into the hands of Governor Smith. The "harmony" platform carried off 414 delegates against 263 delegates, uninstructeed, 250 instructed for Smith and 170 who are lined up with the supporters of the eighteenth amendment. Jesse Jones received 63 of the 93 delegates tabulated for him in the state from Dallas county.

Opponents of Smith carried the conventions of Houston and Harris county, in which the National convention will be held, by a vote

FORMER NEW YORK WOMAN OFFICIAL IS DEFENSE WITNESS

ALBANY, N. Y., May 7.—(AP)—Mrs. Florence E. S. Knapp, first woman ever elected to statewide public office in New York, took the witness stand today in her own defense against a charge of grand larceny in connection with alleged misuse of a state census pay check.

She said she had a house in Syracuse when she entered office as secretary of state in 1925 and when she went out she had "nothing more." She added that before she entered office, she also had about $4,500 in cash.

She characterized the census of 1925 as a "gigantic task" and said she asked several of her relatives to help her accomplish the "vast amount of work." She detailed various work she said her relatives had done on the census. The state had sought to show that relatives whose names appeared on the census payroll had done little or no work, and some did not even know their names were on the roll.

PIONEER CORSICANA WOMAN PASSED AWAY EARLY HOUR MONDAY

HAD RESIDED IN CORSICANA MORE THAN 80 YEARS; FUNERAL TUESDAY

Mrs. Mary Miller, aged 89 years, eight months and 17 days, pioneer resident of Corsicana, died at her home, 521 West Third avenue, Monday morning at 3:30 o'clock following a short illness incident to falling and breaking her hip three weeks ago. The funeral services will be conducted at the First Methodist church, Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and interment will be made in Oakwood cemetery. The funeral services will be conducted by Dr. Horace Bishop, Methodist minister of San Angelo, but formerly pastor of the First Methodist church here.

Mrs. Miller was born in McGoopin county, Illinois, August 24, 1838 and she came to Texas with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Hampton McKinney, when she was eignt years old. Her parents were among the founders of Corsicana. Her father was a Methodist minister and donated the site for the First Methodist church.

At the age of 16, Mrs. Miller was married to the late John L. Miller, one of the first citizens of Corsicana, and their first home was built on the site of the C. H. Mills homestead.

Surviving are two sons, J. Lanty Miller, Corsicana; Alexander Benton Miller, San Angelo; two daughters, Misses Mattie and Ussula Miller, both of Corsicana; seven grandchildren—Mrs. D. C. PEACEFUL MARCH OF PEASANTS TO CAPITAL FOLLOWS CONGRESS

LEADER OF RUMANIAN MASSES SAYS ACTIVE RESISTANCE MAY FOLLOW

BUCHAREST, May 7.—(AP)—The regency today refused the demand voiced by 200,000 peasants meeting at Alba Julia yesterday that the government of Vintila Bratianu resign.

Julio Maniu, leader of the peasants, who brought the demand to Bucharest was informed that the regency saw no occasion for demanding the resignation.

In the face of a negative reply the peasant's party may now adopt passive resistance towards the present government including the non-payment of taxes in order to embarrass it.

It was stated that each peasant was participating in the march on his own initiative and without the authorization of Julio Maniu, leader of the National Peasant Party. The march on Bucharest was regarded as a popular manifestation and since the marchers were unarmed no bloodshed was expected.

Maniu and I. Michalaki, another leader, intended to reach the capital ahead of the peasants by traving by railroad. They carried the demand of the assembly that the government headed by Vintila Bratianu resign and intended to present it to the regency.

FLOOD CONTROL BILL SENT BACK BY HOUSE FOR SOME REVISION

MEASURE EXPECTED TO BE REVAMPED TO ELIMINATE OBJECTIONS

WASHINGTON, May 7.—(AP)—The Mississippi flood control bill was changed today by the house and senate conferees to meet the views of President Coolidge as expressed to them at a White House conference earlier in the day.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—(AP)—The house today sent the conference report on the Mississippi river flood control bill back to the conferees for revision along lines agreed upon today at the White House.

The decision to recommit it to the conferees was reached without discussion and came after a meeting this morning of President Coolidge and members of the senate and house conference committees, at which objections of the president to the measure as it passed congress were discussed.

Senate and house managers planned to meet later in the day to revamp the measure.

At the same time Chairman Reid of the flood control committee obtained approval of a resolution to give the conference committee authority to revise the measure to provide that the Mississippi river commission instead of the proposed supervising board be authorized to receive a report regarding the survey of tributaries authorized under the bill.

This resolution which still must be approved by the senate, likewise was acted upon without discussion.

ADDITIONAL ARMY AND NAVY UNITS OF JAPAN SENT TO CHINA.

ANNIVERSARY OF "HUMILIATION DAY" MAY BRING GENERAL BATTLE

TOKYO, May 7.—(AP)—The general staff and other high war and navy officials propose that Japan still hold Shantung province and its railways until present difficulties over Tsinan are solved. It was also proposed that the fighting factions of the Chinese be ordered to cease warfare in Shantung.

It was stated that sanction of the cabinet will be sought for the sending of all infantry units, including the divisional headquarters, of the Nagoyo division to Tsingtao, Shantung, to administer the railway. The sending of five additional companies of infantry to Tientsin also was urged.

PEKING, May 7—(AP)—Japanese warships were distributed throughout Chinese waters and additional troops were on their way to reinforce embattled comrades in Tsinan today as the Chinese observed "Humilitation Day."

The thirteenth anniversary of Japan's ultimatum of 21 demands took on a more somber and threatening aspect than ever before. Annually the day has been the occasion of anti-Japanese demonstrations. Massacre and fighting in Tsinan today had brought about what was considered the gravest Sino-Japanese crisis since the 1915 demands. It was feared that in Nationalist territory at least race hatred might flare and be the spark to set the train of powder off.

Shanghai advices told of arrangements for an extensive boycott of Japanese goods and resignation of Chinese employed by Japanese.

U. S. IMMIGRATION POLICY ASSAILED IN METHODIST SESSION

WANT ALL RACES ADMITTED ON SAME BASIS UNDER RESTRICTIONS

KANSAS CITY, May 7.—(AP)—The present immigration policy of the United States as regards exclusion was assailed and the admission of all nationals on a quota basis was urged in a resolution adopted by the quadrennial general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church here today.

The resolution, presented by Dr. E. Stanley Jones, missionary to India, gave hearty approval to the restriction of immigration, but condemned the exclusion of some nationals as an "invidious, un-American ad un-Christian" policy.

"It asked all Christian citizens to unite in removing, as soon as possible, such legislation as restricts immigration and the right of citizenship on the ground of race and color."

The conference halted in the midst of its business session for a special prayer for war-torn China.

Bishop George R. Grose of the Shantung area led the prayer at the request of the Rev. Perry O. Hamson, cissionary of Tsinan area, where Chinese and Japanese troops recently have been embroiled.

Bishop Grose prayed that "God stay the forces of violence in China and remove the passions of men so that peace may prevail there."

Mr. Hamson, who has spent 25 years in China, said he believed that prevailing conditions there would lead the Chinese to grant any demands Japan might make. He said China was in a "terrible condition" in the Tsinan area and he estimated that 1,000,000 persons had died of starvation in that immediate vicinity since the first of the year.

Pledging itself to the wisdom of unification and "to our earnest desire for unification," the conference today unanimously approved continuation of its commission on unification with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, or "any church of the Methodist or kindred groups." The commission on unification, of which Bishop W....... F. McDowell is chairman, reported that unification steps were proceeding satisfactorily. It was recommended in the approved resolution that action be taken "to render our attitude officially permanent."

Posse Searches Hills of Kentucky County For Men In Alleged Burning Case

SHEPHERDSVILLE, Ky., May 7—(AP)—A federal posse continued to search the hills of Bullitt county today for two men who escaped under fire yesterday when seven others were arrested in connection with the slaying of Mrs. Kate Browning, 60, shot down as she fled with five members of her family from her burning home at midnight Friday.

Prohibition agents invaded the county after local officials had indicated that investigation of the burning and slaying would be delayed for several days. Their nine warrants charging conspiracy to intimidate a federal witness were based on reports that the family was attacked because one member had supplied information about moonshiners to the raiding squad at Louisville.

Meantime, the five members of the family, wounded when they dashed barefooted and scantly clad from the blazing home, were believed hiding in the woods nearby with no prospects of shelter. Cared for at the jail in Bardstown Saturday night, they received shoes and stockings and other clothing as gifts from citizens here.

The arrested men are magistrate John Bolton, 50, Frank Kinder, Walter Crenshaw, Elmer Crenshaw, Frank Hodge, James Harris, and Clarence Crenshaw, father of Walter and Elmer. Those sought by the posse, Arthur and Sylvia Hodge, dropped several bottles of whiskey as they fled, agents reported. All live in the Browningston section in the hills ten miles from here where the killing occurred. They refused to talk.

Mrs. Browning's slayers are alleged to have barricaded the door of her one-room cabin, set fire to it in many place and awaited the flight of the family from ambush. Ben Browning, one of the wounded, said he was forced to break the door with an axe when flames and molten tar broke through the roof, making the cabin "like the inside of a stove." He had been awakened a few minutes before, apparently by persons who wished to make sure the family was inside before firing the cabin.

The other wounded refugees, Peachie and Angie Browning, Mrs. Amanda Jones and Mrs. Lou Browning, sister of the slain woman, supported Ben's story.

FOUR MEN MISSING FOLLOWING SINKING GOVERNMENT DREDGE

COLLISION IN STEAMSHIP LANES OFF STATEN ISLAND DISASTROUS

NEW YORK, May 7.—(AP)—The 2,000-ton government dredge Navesink, with a crew of forty-seven men, sank off Clifton, Staten island this morning after colliding with the Lamport and Holt liner Swnibunie. Four men were reported missing.

Twenty-five were taken to the Marine hospital on Staten Island where all but two remained for treatment.

Eighteen others swam ashore, it was reported, including Chief Engineer Clubert, in charge of the dredging operations.

The dredge, in command of Capt. Anderson, was working in the double channel directly in the open ocean steamshp lane. She foundered in 45 feet of water.

First news of the accident was received in a radio message from the Caronia, as follows:

"U. S. government drege sinking at Pier 17, middle of channel. Loaded with men. Dredge settling and men swimming around. Adriatic of White Star Line and Standard Oil tanker Standard Arrow nearby. All lowered lifeboats."

This message was relayed to police headquarters, which dispatched four police launches to the scene, five coast guard cutters also put out.

The Navesink was 290 feet long. She was built in 1908 at Sparrows Point, Md., and was valued at $200,000.

MINNEAPOLIS MAN FOUND SHOT DEATH IN ROOM AT CLUB

MINNEAPOLIS, May 7.—(AP)—Werdell Hertig, 59, former president of the city council and a lawyer for 30 years, was found shot dead in his room at the Minneapolis Athletic Club last night.

The body was on the bed, wrapped in a blanket. There were bloodstains on a window shade. A revolver from which two shots had been fired was found under some papers on the floor near the bed. One bullet had entered the ceiling.

These circumstances led to uncertainty among officers as to whether Hertig had killed himself or been shot by another. He had been in ill health for some time.

EAST TEXAS C. C. MEETING ATTRACTS MANY THOUSANDS

PRESIDENT R. M. KELLEY OPENS CONVENTION WITH REPORT OF ACTIVITIES

GREENVILLE, May 7.—(AP)—The greatest crowd in the history of Greenville gathered today for the formal opening of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce convention. Registration figures showed that more than 20,000 visitors were here and officials predicted that the attendance would be swelled to at least 35,000 before the parade tomorrow which will end the festivities.

The city was in gala attire and all business was at a standstill while the citizens went about welcoming visitors. Delegations from Dallas, Port Arthur, Bryan, and Shreveport paraded the streets, while Bryan and Port Arthur made strong bids for the next convention.

The convention was opened by President R. M. Kelly of the East Texas chamber who pointed out notable achievements of the chamber during the last year.

"East Texas as a whole has caught the vision of leaders as evidenced by the astonishingly strong financial support accorded the organization in all parts of its territory," Mr. Kelly said. "I am happy to report that the financial affairs of the organization are in fine condition.

FOUNDER OF THE RED CROSS

Tomorrow will be celebrated the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Jean Henri Dunant, the Swiss philanthropist who founded the International Red Cross Society. While the centenary will be observed by the national organizations of the society in all countries, the chief celebration will be held in Switzerland, of which country Dunant was a resident and where the international society maintains its headquarters.

The Red Cross movement received its first impulse from the carnage of Solferino. Henri Dunant, living at the time in Geneva, witnessed the sufferings of the soldiers wounded in that battle, and returned to his home with an inflexible determination to do everything in his power to reduce the horrors of war. His first convert was Moynier, a medical associate in Geneva, and in the course of five years they succeeded in inducing the Swiss Government to identify itself with the humane policy of neutralizing ambulances and hospitals in time of war and of protecting everybody under the red cross.

The first convention was held in 1864, when the American Union was distracted with the horrors of civil war and unable to take part in the proceedings. The second convention assempled in 1868, without American representation, and applied the principal of humane treatment of the wounded to maritime warfare. The United States Government accepted in 1882 the obligations of the first convention, and adopted during the war with Spain two of the most important provisions of the second convention; and at the Peace Congress of 1899 the American delegates cordially supported a declaration in favor of the revision of the original agreement so as to adapt it to the altered conditions of warfare and to include maritime operations.

The International Red Cross Committee is to take a prominent part in the celebration of the Dunant centenary. Among other things it has issued a new edition of "A Souvenir of Solferino." It is to this pamphlet, originally published by Dunant in 1862, and the widespread interest which it awakens that the movement owes its existence which resulted in the foundation of the International Red Cross Committee and the first Geneva Convention.

The new edition of "A Souvenir of Solferino" is illustrated with views of various places connected with the life of Henri Dunant—the cemetery and tower of Solferino; the Cypress Hill, the theatre of such gruesome hecatombs; the Chiesa Maggiore at Castiglione where he made his headquarters; the cemetery at San Martino; the Court House at Brescia, etc.

In further observance of the centenary the Swiss Red Cross has issued a commemorative medal bearing a familiarly likeness to Dunant in his later years, his face framed in a white beard and his head covered with a little black smoking cap.

Dunant died eighteen years ago, in 1910, at the ripe old age of eighty-two, and his passing was mourned widely, recalling, as it did, how greatly the humanitarian work which he started at grown.

THE REDISCOUNT RATE.

For the second time during the current year, Federal Reserve rediscount rates have been raised. The increase from four to four and one-half per cent by the Reserve Banks in Chicago and Boston, though based upon the local situation in each case, will have a wider bearing, and in the past changes of this sort have been followed by like changes throughout the system. While the several banks act independently, the Federal Reserve Board in Washington is held resonsible for general policy.

The opinion has been expressed in some quarters that the stock market, which has been spectacularly lively for some time past, is in need of a brake. Brokers' loans—presumably in large measure employed for speculative purposes—last week rose $135,000,000, placing the figure above $4,000,000,000 for the first time in history. The higher rediscount rate, of course, should have the effect of a curb along this line and be reflected in the general course of the stock market. It remains to be seen whether the check will have the desired effect or whether the present market, which has displayed such amazing vitality, will go its way, notwithstanding higher money.

REALITY.

Men seek constantly for reality: the scientists in the laboratory, the student in the record of history, the philisopher in the evidence of natural and spiritual law. Every man strives to lay hold upon it, so that with some assurance he may work for perpetuation of his own name and labors. It is sought also as a key to the mystery of life, which is confused chiefly by the difficulty of separating worthwhile things from the trivialties. Above all, it is sought because the real is the eternal, and it is the nature of man to desire immortality.

Material things seem real enough, but it is denied by their quick dissolution and decay. The things of the spirit, however, declare their reality by their long endurance, whether as thought in books or as age-old elements of human nature or as its perennial hopes and habits. The physical environment of such things is perpetually renewed, but they themselves do not die.

We choose our own realities and orient our course and conduct according to them. The illusive reality of the material may serve for a life without thought for the morrow or reflection on the past, but a life of purpose needs better support. It needs the sense of reality in things of enduring worth; it needs the conviction that spiritual realities are the substantial realities. The habits of the senses perpetually challenge this conviction, but it remains the only one proper to the stature of man.

Highways make progressive communities and a happy and contented citizenship.

REPUBLICANS HELD HARMONIOUS MEET SELECT DELEGATES

A harmonious precinct Republican convention was held here Saturday morning at the Barth Hall at 10 o'clock and delegates and alternates to the county convention, to be held in the same place Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, were elected. Resolutions endorsing R. B. Creager, state Republican chairman, and the candidacy of Herbert Hoover as the partys' presidential nominee, were adopted. Roy Canady, Jr., precinct chairman, presided.

Other precincts in the county held their conventions Saturday morning.

Delegates elected to the county convention Tuesday were E. L. Dupuy, Roy Canady, Sr., Roy Canady, Jr., M. Blumrosen, C. F. Mirus, W. H. Barth and P. Mayer. Alternates named were J. F. Yarber, Joe Borg and H. W. Taylor.

The following resolutions were passed:

To the Republican Convention of Precinct One, Navarro County, Texas:

We, your resolutions committee wish to make the following report of our delibarations for your consideration and approval:

First—Be it resolved, that this convention do extend its thanks to our good friend and fellow Republican, Wm. H. Barth, for his courteous permission of use of his office for holding this convention, and that our secretary be ordered to extend to Mr. Barth our thanks.

Second—Be it further resolved, by this convention that we again go on record in our hearty, sincere, and entire allegiance to the principles of the Republican party as we have during the years that the party has been in our midst, feeling as we do that the principles of this party, founded by Abraham Lincoln, and carried on by an illustrous succession, including Blaine, Garfield, McKinley, Roosevelt and Coolidge, offer to the citizens of this Republic the only good principles of a safe, sound and sane government, "of the people, for the people, and by the people," free from various fads and fancies and fallacies such as are advocated by other parties, and we further resolve that:

We have entire confidence in our national committeeman, the Hon. R. B. Creager, in our state chairman, the Hon. Eugene Nolte, and in our entire state organization, and we do endorse them and their conduct of the affairs of our party, feeling that the healthy growth of the party under their leadership and guidance is such that we feel that the future of the party in the hands of such men, whose honor, integrity, ability, and statesmanship is unquestioned, is secure, and we further resolve that:

We regret the campaign villification carried on against these men by those, who from base motives, would profit from the prostitution of the party into unclean hands, and we do pledge our support to our leaders, Creager and Nolte, in their support of an honorable and clean party.

Third—Be it further resolved by this convention, that the candidacy of Herbert Hoover offers an appropriate and happy opportunity for us as citizens and Republicans to show our approval of all Republican principles, feeling that the mantle so ably worn by his chief, our beloved President Calvin Coolidge, would well fit his shoulders, and that in his election the Republican party will once more give to the nation that greatest of all things, a good president, in whose able hands the nation would continue in prosperity, and in progress.

Signed, this fifth dav of May, 1928.

E. L. DUPUY,
C. F. MIRUS
ROY CANADY, SR.

To the Republican Convention of Precinct One, Navarro County, Texas:

We, your resolutions committee, wish to submit the following special resolution for your consideration and approval.

Be it resolved bv us, the Republicans of Precinct 1 of Navarro county in convention assembled on this fifth day of May, 1928, that

We send a delegation to cast our 19 votes in the county convention as a unit to uphold and further the candidacy of the Hon. Herbert Hoover for president of these United States, to uphold and support our state leaders, Creager and Nolte, in their present leadership of the party, and to vote for an instructed delegation to stand for the above questions from the county convention, to the state convention at Dallas.

In other words, that the precinct delegation be sent instructed to stand for Hoover, Creager and Nolte, and to stand for an instructed delegation to stand for the same things from the county to the state convention, and that the following committee from among our delegates be named and authorized to so cast our precinct vote in the county convention.

E. L. Dupuy, chairman; M. Blumrosen, C. F. Mirus.

Respectfully submitted,
E. L. DUPUY
ROY CANADY, SR.
C. F. MIRUS.

WOMAN KILLED AND THREE WOMEN, TWO MEN ARE WOUNDED

SHEPHERDSVILLE, Ky., May 5.—(AP)—One woman was shot to death and three other women and two men wounded seriously early today in what officers believe was a revenge attack by moonshiners whose stills recently had been raided by prohibition agents.

Mrs. Kate Browning was shot down as she fled from her home at Browningtown settlement, about seven miles from here, after the building had been set afire. Three sisters and two sons of the sisters also were shot as they fled from the burning building.

The attackers appeared at the Browning home soon after midnight, officers said, and after setting fire to the house waited under cover for their victims to appear.

The four women were said to have furnished prohibition men with information that resulted in raids on several moonshine stills in the neighborhood recently.

The three wounded sisters of Mrs. Browning, Lou, Andie and Mandy, were taken to the homes of neighbors. All were reported in critical condition today.

The two men reported wounded were Pete and Ben Browning, 21 and 22 years old, sons of Mrs. Lou Browning. They have not been seen since the shooting and officers were working today on the theory that they were taken captives by the attacking party.

TWO AGED MEN AND YOUNG WOMAN FOUND IN NEBRASKA HOME

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., May 5.—(AP)—The bodies of a young woman and two 70-year-old men, each with a bullet drilled through the left temple, were found last night by the woman's husband.

The bodies were lying in the bottle-strewn dining room of John Varada's home. Varada was one of the dead. Hans Tams and Mrs. Pearl Enbury, 23, were the others.

A note signed by Varada indicated it had been a double murder and a suicide. "They were going to get me, but I got them," the note said. "I am ridding Enbury of his wife." There was more to the note, but it was not made public.

Enbury, a railroad worker, became alarmed on returning from work to find no one at the Tams' home where he and his wife lived. He crossed the street to the Varada residence and forced his way through a screen door.

Varada's note, lying on the table, was weighed down with $50 in currency and silver and Varada's watch.

The Enburys formerly made their home with Varada, but following slight differences, moved in with Tams, a widower.

POSTOFFICE WILL OCCUPY TEMPORARY QUARTERS FOR YEAR

WORK ON REMODELING PRESENT BUILDING TO START AUGUST FIRST

According to announcement by P. Mayer, Corsicana Postmaster, sealed bids will be opened in the office of the custodian of the United States Postoffice at Corsicana at 2 p. m. May 21, for furnishing quarters at Corsicana to be leased by the United States government for use as a postoffice. General and special requirements can be obtained from the custodian of the postoffice in this city.

Work is expected to be started on the new $100,000 addition to the postoffice the latter part of July, Mr. Mayer pointed out, and the entire postoffice equipment and force will be moved to other quarters while these improvements are being made. Floor space required in the temporary quarters will be approximately 4,500 square feet and will be occupied as a postoffice for the approximately twelve months time.

When the remodeling of the present postoffice is completed Corsicana will boast one of the most modern government buildings in this section of the state. P.O. Page, postoffice inspector, was in Corsicana two days last week completing details in connection with the moving of the equipment and securing another building.

It was pointed out by Mr. Mayer that the receipts of the local postoffice for the year 1927 were $73,375.95 and for the first quarter of 1928-Jan. 1,, to March 31—amounted to $18,098.83.

CARD OF THANKS.

Barry, Texas, May 4, 1928.

I wish that I had language to express my gratitude to the faithful doctors, the untiring nurses and my many friends who stood by me during the illness and death of my beloved companion but language is inadequate and I can only say that God only knows my heart and how much I appreciate your unbound kindness and should you ever need anything that I can do, rest ssured that the nights will never get too dark, rainy or cold for me to go to your rescue.

May God bless each and every one who came to our rescue and may such trials as I am now undergoing, be sweetened by the such deeds of kindness as you have shown me during my trials and tribulations.

Yours sincerely,

A CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to thank each and every one of the many friends for their help and kindness during the long illness and death of my beloved sister-in-law, Mrs. Fannie Jones, who died Dec. 11, 1927. And wish to thank the doctor for his faithfulness. All was done that loving hands and medical service could do, for the great supreme power came and claimed the jewel of that home. And I sincerely hope in prayer that God's blessings will rest on each and every one who so faithfully came to help that beloved one.

MRS. J. T. JONES.

In Memory

Peacefully be thy silent slumber
Peaceful in thy grave so low;
Thou no more wilt join our numbers,
Thou no more our sorrows know.
Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled;
And in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed.

By MRS. J. T. JONES.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 7.—(P)—The Moslem peasantry, which feels that recent disastrous earthquakes resulted from the government's renunciation of Islam as the state religion, is being clandestinely circularized with manifestoes calling for a religious revolt.

CHILDREN'S DAY OBSERVED SUNDAY FIRST METHODIST

SICKNESS AND SORE ARMS CUT INTO ATTENDANCE OF ALL SERVICES OF DAY

Among the announcements made at the morning hour of the First Methodist church were: the regular meeting of the workers council for Monday night at eight o'clock in the Educational building at which time all officers and teachers are asked to be present; the mid-week prayer service Wednesday night at 8 o'clock; the regular training class Thursday night at 7:30, this class is being taught by Rev. Joe Patterson, religious educational director; the changing of the McElwrath boys camp to May 25th, the boys to leave at noon Friday, May 25th, and return Thursday, June 5th, with a big time anticipated; and the meeting of the District conference in Frost, Thursday and Friday, May 10th and 11th. Delegates have been named to this conference from First church and a large attendance is expected.

At the morning church hour the choir sang "The Silent Sea," by Neidlinge. Rev. Joe Patterson told a story of the children, the morning hour being ovserved for the children; a collection was taken for the benevolent work of the church, communion was observed by the children and adult members and Claude Albritton spoke on the Y campaign.

At the night hour, Rev. Joe Patterson proched a special sermon to young people and the choir sang "God Thou Art Great," Heyser.

Sickness and sore arms cut largely into the attendance at all meetings. At the Sunday school there was only 465 present. In the Weller Bible class the attendance was down to 35. W. A. Tarver taught the class, S. W. Burdine presided and a reading was given by little Miss Mary Franchil Absher. A card of thanks to the class was read from J. A. Young and family.

In the adult department, S. J. Jackson, superintendent, presided; S. W. Burdine led the singing; Mrs. T. P. McLendon presided at the piano, and Captain Thomas of the Salvation Army was the principal speaker.

In the high school department, Mrs. A. M. Rogers, superintendent, a program was given by the boys' classes; W. M. Huggins led the scripture reading; F. P. McElwrath led in prayer; Robert and Randolph Mitchell played the violin and piano; Bob Knight sang a solo, and announcements were made in regard to Mother's Day and an entertainment to be given in honor of the seniors. Next Sunday, Mother's Day, will be Golden Cross Day in the church and Sunday school. This is a part of the hospital work of the church.

SENATE COMMITTEE HEARS CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENCY

SENATE CAMPAIGN EXPENSES PROBERS HEARD REPORTS MONDAY

WASHINGTON, May 7.—(AP)—A rapidly moving line of presidential candidates trooped to and from the witness stand today at the opening of the senate's new investigation into campaign expenditures of 1928, assured by Chairman Steiwer of the investigating committee, that the proceedings were not designed to injure or aid any man's political fortunes.

Norris of Nebraska, Curtis of Kansas, Borah of Idaho, Walsh of Montana, George of Georgia, Goff of West Virginia, Hitchcock of Nebraska and Hull of Tennessee, all were there to testify, furnish figures, if there were any, and to say that they had no agreement with other candidates.

Goff, of West Virginia, who is opposing Secretary Hoover in his home state, epitomized this stand with the assertion that he was sending out literature to emphasize that he was nobody's "stalking horse."

Curtis furnished figures totalling a few thousand dollars covering Kansas, New York, Oklahoma, Missouri, the District of Columbia and his own receipt of a thousand dollars.

Incidentally the Kansan said he expected to win and that he had become convinced that President Coolidge would never consent to be drafted.

Norris repeated the assertion he made last week that he had spent $6 for an advertisement in a Nebraska paper dhich he had not ordered. Borah had spent nothing; Walsh had figures of $1,190.65; George had $75.00 and a hotel bill; Curtis organizations had reported expenditures of $11,468.67; Goff's total to date was $60. Hitchcock's total was $1,744.85. Hull's organization had spent $1,000.

MIAMI POLICE ARE CHARGED WITH GRAVE ACTS BY GRAND JURY

MIAMI, Fla., May 7.—(AP)—After three months investigation the Dade county grand jury today charged the Miami police department with "underworld alliances, summary executions, revival of the tortures of the middle ages and despotism of such nature as to destroy the freedom of our citizens."

The denunciation of police department policies was contained in the final report of the grand jury which some time ago indicted Chief of Police H. Leslie Quigg and several members of his force for murder and beatings. Quigg together with three of his men was acquitted recently of killing a negro prisoner.

The grand jury pronounced Quigg "wholly unfit for the office." He now is under suspension.

Specific instances of torture, indignity and tyranny were described in the report.

Common practice in police questioning of witnesses included forcing them to sit on a chair electrically wired so as to cause acute discomfort, with an officer standing ready to knock back into position anyone who attempted to escape the torture, the report said.

The jury said it had been informed that one negro prisoner had the soles of his bare feet beaten with a copper-bound ruler for an hour and a half. The negro was accused of stealing an automobile.

WURZBACH EXPECTS CONTINUE FIGHT FOR NO INSTRUCTIONS

SAN ANTONIO, May 7.—(AP)—Congressman Harry M. Wurzbach announced today that he intended to carry his fight for an uninstructed delegation from Texas to the republican national convention to the state convention in Dallas.

He predicted that his organization, which is opposing the faction of the party led by R. B. Creager of Brownsville would have a vention here tomorrow and that clear majority at the county con- it might have a majority at the Dallas convention. The Creager faction is seeking a delegation in structed to vote for Herbert Hoover.

Wurzbach announced that congressional district conventions would be held throughout Texas name 22 of Texas' 26 delegates at and that these conventions would large.

T. S. McClure, representative of the Creager forces here declared that his wing of the party will not recognize or enter the district conventions, because they are not authorized by the Terrell election law.

INTERNATIONAL AIR MAIL SERVICE WILL START IN MIDSUMMER

DALLAS, May 7—An international air mail line from New York to Mexico City by way of Dallas, San Antonio and Laredo will be placed in operation shortly after June 1, according to information received today by Postmaster John W. Philp.

The Mexican government will fly mail planes between Mexico City and Laredo by way of Tampico, beginning June 1, Mr. Philp said, and the U. S. Postal department likely will order extension by the Texas air transport of its Dallas line from San Antonio to Laredo.

A second line from Washington to Laredo through New Orleans and Houston likely will be placed in operation within the next six months, Mr. Philp said.

Man Badly Beaten By Three Men

FORT WORTH, May 7—(AP)—William Lunsford, who resides a short distance west of Fort Worth was beaten into unconsciousness by three men who attacked him with a wrench early Sunday night, he reported to police.

The injured man told officers that the trio drove to his home, leaped from a large touring car and attacked him. Lunsford's assailants have not been identified.

HOOVER AND WATSON FORCES ARE PITTED IN PRIMARY TUESDAY

GENERAL STATE PRIMARY ALSO ATTRACTING CONSIDERABLE ATTENTION

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 7—(AP)—A bitter campaign approached the end today. Indiana voters will vote tomorrow for republican and democratic candidates for president, United States senate, congress, governor, state legislature and county officers. Precinct committeemen and delegates to the state convention also will be selected.

Principal interest centers in the fight between Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, and Senator James E. Watson for the preferential vote of the state for the Republican nomination for president. Control of the 33 delegates to the Kansas City convention is in question.

Evans Woollen, Indianapolis banker, is unopposed for the Democratic preferential vote for nomination for president. He will control 30 delegates to the Houston convention.

As to the state contests, two years of investigation of alleged political corruption, the expose of the Ku Klux Klan control of politics as brought out in the trial of John L. Duvall, resigned mayor of Indianapolis, along with the alleged heavy influence the Indiana anti-saloon league had wielded in past primaries, evidently have failed to arouse the ordinary voter.

Except in a few instances small crowds have greeted the candidates as they hurled their cries for "a new deal," attacked the Klan and the present Republican administration and hurled the "lie" at each other. One explanation was that probably the voters had been already made up their minds.

Senator Arthur R. Robinson is contesting renomination and reelection with two opponents. They are Arthur L. Gilliom, attorney general, and Solo J. Carter, Indianapolis attorney. Gilliom and Carter charge Robinson is backed by the Klan.

The Democratic candidates for nomination as senator are Walter Myers of Indianapolis and Albert Stump, both Indianapolis attorneys, and W. L. Curry, Indianapolis. The latter had campaigned as a "wet."

Frederick E. Schortemeier, secretary of state, is favored to win over nine other candidates for the Republican nomination for governor. There are seven candidates seeking nomination as Democratic candidates for governor.

There has been little interest aroused over the selection of the candidates in the thirteen congressional districts.

Maryland Voters Balloting Monday

BALTIMORE, Md., May 7.—(AP)—Maryland voters cast their ballots in statewide primaries today for nominees for congress, state convention, and a few scattered state and municipal offices.

With the possible exception of the contest between two rival factions of the republican party who find themselves fighting for control of the state convention there was little interest on the republican side.

Topping the democratic party, was the contest between Senator William Cabell Bruce, incumbent and Mrs. Virginia Peters Parkhurst, for the senatorial honor. Neither had made any formidable effort to obtain the nomination and Senator Bruce, democratic leaders said, was a favorite as the balloting started. There was no republican senate contest, former Governor Philips Lee Goldsborough being the candidate.

So far as the president aspect of the primary goes Secretary Herbert Hoover had no opposition in his bid for support of the 19 delegates to the Kansas City gathering and while no one was formally entered in the democratic ranks, it was expected that the 16 delegates to Houston will be instructed for Governor Ritchie.

The delegates will be named by the state conventions.

Three Galveston Men Escape Injury

MUSKOGEE, May 7.—(AP)—Three Galveston men escaped injury today when a Stinson-Detroiter airplane in which they were taking off for Columbus, Ohio, crashed at Hatbox field here.

The plane struck telephone wires at the end of the field as it left the ground, turned completely over and killed a calf upon which it landed.

Two or three days will be required for the repairing of the ship it was said at the field. The men in the plane were Jo Glass, G. A. Moody and C. W. Spracher.

Roadster Stolen Saturday Night

While J. S. Haslam was attending the precinct convention for Ward 4 at the chamber of commerce Saturday night, someone took his Ford roadster from its parking place near the telephone office. Mr. Haslam reported his loss to the police department at once, but no trace of the car has been found.

Mr. Haslam said that he removed the keys from the car but did not lock the steering wheel, and the party taking the car had little difficulty.

Cotton Market Up Three Dollars Bale

NEW ORLEANS, May 7.—(AP)—The cotton market advanced over $3 a bale here today under heavy buying promoted by numerous unfavorable crop advices from the eastern sections of the belt and an unfavorable weather outlook. The highs of the day were made in the final trading when July contracts touched 20.99 and October 20.78. The close was at the top showing a net advance of 57 to 65 points.

LUCKY GRADUATES WILL BE PRESENTED HANDSOME WATCHES

Sam Daiches, proprietor of the Corsicana Jewelry and Optical Co. is a friend of the children and he does not permit his interest to lag as the youngsters grow in years and stature and knowledge. He is just as deeply interested in the high school students and the fine class of graduates who will go forth soon from the Corsicana high school.

Not being able to present each of the large class with a handsome wrist watch, Mr. Daiches had devised a scheme whereby he will present a girl and a boy with a watch and it will be done in a fair, impartial and novel way. He has had painted on a large cardboard dial the name of each graduate and Wednesday a large eight-day clock will be wound up and when the clock stops the lucky boy or girl whose names are pointed to by the hands of the clock will receive the handsome Bulova wrist watches on display in the show window of the jewelry store.

There is no contest or essays on anything in this gift but it is merely a way Dr. Daiches has of honoring the graduates in an impartial way and will attract much interest as the time for the clock to stop nears.

COURT ACTION TO SETTLE OWNERSHIP BANK ROBBER CASH

EL PASO, May 7.—(AP)—A writ of garnishment for about $9,000 found sewn in the clothing of Jack Perry Long, accused Oklahoma bank robber, was issued against Chief of Police Tom Armstrong today by an insurance company to prevent the money from being turned over to anyone except persons authorized to handle the money by court action.

Long was captured here Monday. The garnishment was issued after word had been received that officers from Springfield, Mo., were on their way to El Paso to take Long to Missouri to stand trial for the alleged robbing of a Springfield bank of $28,000.

Officers said their records showed Long, with an accomplice, was charged with robbing four banks, one in Springfield, one in Dallas and two in Oklahoma.

Requisition Issued.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 7. —(AP)—Governor Baker issued a requisition today on Governor Moody of Texas for the extradition of Jack Barry Long from El Paso, Texas, to Springfield, Mo., where he is wanted for connection with the robbery of the Peoples' Bank of Springfield on Dec. 27, 1927. Several holdup men raided the bank and got about $28,000.

BOOTLEGGER FOUND SHOT TO DEATH IN AUTO EARLY MONDAY

KANSAS CITY, May 7. —(AP)—Fred Shofstall, alleged bootlegger, was shot to death early today in his motor car at the rear of his south side apartment house home. His body was found slumped over the steering wheel, a revolver, with one shot fired, gripped in his right hand.

Blood on the driveway indicated his shot had founded one of his assailants. A resident of the apartment, awakened by the firing, said he saw three men run from the driveway and flee in a motor car.

Police believe Shofstall may have been killed by robbers.

Confessed Killer Trial Postponed

ELDORADO, Kas., May 7.—(AP)—Although Owen Oberst, 17-year-old farmer boy who has confessed killing his family of seven and burning their farm home, has told officers he wants to plead guilty to first degree murder and "get it over with," a special investigating commission appointed by Judge J. Benson of the district court has obtained delay of the case until next Wednesday.

The eight men of the commission directed to question the youth to make sure no "third degree" methods were used to obtain his confession and that he "knows his own mind" with regard to pleading guilty, told Judge Benson today they wanted until 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon to make their report. Judge Benson agreed to the extension of time.

Young Oberst has no legal counsel, and said he does not want any.

Gray County Wildcat Comes in Producer

AMARILLO, May 7.—(AP)—A new oil pool eight miles from production was believed to have been opened up in Western Gray county today when oil was encountered in the Empire Gas & Fuel company's No. 1, Bauer, five miles southeast of White Deer.

The wildcat drilled into a sand at 3,126 feet, and when tools were pulled it started flowing oil at the rate of 50 barrels daily.

The test is eight miles south of the known producing area which extends across Gray and Carson counties, and is located almost on the line of the two counties.

American Society For Peace Meeting

CLEVELAND, May 7.—(AP)—With a message from President Coolidge commending "the constant and effective efforts" which the American Peace Society "has never failed to put forth in promoting peace" the centennial celebration of the founding of the society opened here today with diplomats and delegates from nearly every nation present.

LINDBERGH STILL MOST IMPORTANT OF AMERICAN HEROES

GREAT THRONG RUSHED HIS PLANE AT CURTIS FIELD, ENDANGERING LIVES

CURTISS FIELD, N. Y., May 7. (AP)—America has had many heroes since Col. Charles A. Lindbergh came back from his epic flight to Paris last summer, but the scent of his silver-winged plane is still enough of a magnet to send [illegible] persons stampeding to surround it.

Landing on the field here last night after a hop over to Mitchell field, he narrowly averted a tragedy as the crowd swarmed onto the field, in imminent danger from the whirling blades of his plane's propeller.

Motorcycle police charged the crowd with screaming sirens and special guards attempted to ring off a clear space for him to land but their efforts were not enough to stop the rush. Two women were knocked down, receiving cuts and bruises which required medical attention.

Lindbergh saw the human avalanche coming toward him and swerved his ship after a run of only a few feet, almost causing it to tip over. Using his wheel brakes as much as he dared he turned his plane completely around and shut off the motor without the customary idling while it cooled off.

He and his passengers were imprisoned in the plane's cabin as the mob milled around. Finally an automobile was forced through and ducking the hands of those who sought to touch him he jumped into the car. Policemen stood on the running board, pushing away persons who sought to climb on, as motorcycle police cleared a lane to the road to New York.

COUNTY DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION TO MEET TUESDAY MORNING

The Navarro county democratic convention will be held at the Navarro county courthouse Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at which time delegates will be elected to the state democratic convention at Beaumont, May 22. Precinct conventions were held in forty-eight precincts of the county Saturday and delegates to the county convention selected. The executive committee of the democratic party in Navarro county will also meet Tuesday morning. A number of important questions will likely be discussed at the convention Tuesday. C. M. DeLafosse, county chairman, will preside.

The Navarro county republican convention will be held Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock at the Barth Hall on South Beaton street at which time delegates to the state republican convention at Dallas, May 22, will be elected, and other matters of business carried out. Precinct conventions of this party were held Saturday.

PEACEFUL MARCH OF PEASANTS TO CAPITAL FOLLOWS CONGRESS

and which was nominated by a decree frung from King Ferdinand on his death bed. We swear that a new Rumania shall be created which shall stand for freedom and justice to all Roumania's brave sons."

To frustrate any attempt at open revolution the government deployed 10,000 troops at strategic points outside the city with machine guns and airplanes. No attempt was made, however, to molest the peasants.

One resolution passed by the congress was interpreted as meaning that if Maniu obtained power he might recommend the abolition of the regency, which rules for the six year old king Michael, and this in turn might leave the door open for the return of former Crown Prince Carol either as a regent or as a king.

Intimates Force Be Used.

While Maniu and other leaders were addressing 200 of the more important delegates in the municipal theatre, an enormous crowd gathered outside and cheered.

Manui took the Associated Press correspondent by the arm and led him to the balcony where they could survey the crowd.

"Look at that mass of humanity," Maniu said. "It could be parallelled only in liberty loving America. It is not a mob. It is an orderly, peaceful assemblage. We are neither revolutionists nor bolshevists. We want an honest government. * * *

"If all peaceful means to dislodge the government fail, we shall be forced to adopt active resistance toward the government."

Throughout the city hung pictures of King Michael, Queen Marie and Maniu. Queen Marie is still enormously popular among the peasantry, who affectionately call her mother. Nowhere was there apparent any sentiment for Prince Carol.

Britain Frustrates Plot of Carolists

LONDON, May 7.—(AP)—The Daily Express today said the British government had prevented the carrying out of a plot, of which former Crown Prince Carol of Rumania was the central figure, to seize the Rumanian throne from Carol's six-year-old son, King Michael. Despite the temporary check the plans have not been abandoned, the paper asserted.

There were reports that at the estate of M. Jonescu, a Rumanian living in Godstone, Surrey, where Carol is visiting, a fast automobile waited to speed him to Croydon from which point he could fly to Paris. There he keeps his own plane in readiness. Carol himself said:

"I am waiting and if Rumania calls, as I think she may, I will answer. Some people think that I am trying to kick my son off the throne. That is wrong. But if the call should come, I am ready to go."

The newspaper said British airplanes had been chartered to carry manifestos and scatter them over Rumania. These manifestos, of which 20,000 were printed in London, were said to quote Carol as asserting:

"I wish to return by your will to lead Rumania to its rightful place in the world. I wish to return to my child and make him a worthy successor of the dynasty. I declare that I left my country unwillingly, compelled by unhappy circumstances. Madame Lupescu (with whom Carol eloped) was not the cause of my leaving and she will not prevent me from doing my duty to my country."

The paper said that the British government learning of the plot prevented the airplanes from leaving Croydon with the manifestos. Not deterred, the Carolists were said to have sent an unnamed Englishman, who has been acting as Carol's chief emissary, on a secret mission, which was understood to be Hungary. Carol was asserted to have promised to use his influence to obtain a revision of the treaty of Trianon and thus hoped to obtain the support of the Hungarian government.

DENTIST KILLS SELF.

NEW ORLEANS, La., May 7.—(AP)—Dr. C. Edmund Kells, internationally famous dentist and the first member of his profession to use X-ray in the practice of dentistry shot and killed himself in hi soffice here today. Despondency over ill health was attributed as the cause of his act by officers who declared the case one of suicide.

TWELVE PERSONS INJURED IN RIOT IN PANAMA CITY

BALBOA, Canal Zone, May 7.—(AP)—Twelve persons, including six American bluejackets and one American officer, were injured in a riot in Panama City last night between bluejackets attached to the cruiser Rochester and the ammunition ship, Nitro, and Pamama police and civilians. Clubs, stones and bottles were used by the rioters who fought half an hour before they were dispersed.

J. J. Warzenics, a sailor attached to the Nitro was stabbed during the fight and may die. Ensign Frank J. Donahue of Milwaukee, Wis., attached to the Rochester, was beaten over the head by Panama policemen and was taken to a police station where he was questioned. Eventually he was released and returned to the Rochester.

The American naval authorities and Panama officials are investigating the affair in an effort to determine the cause of the rioting which is said to have grown out of the refusal of a sailor to pay an automobile fare.

THREE THOUSAND JAPANESE SOLDIERS BESIEGED IN TSINAN

BATTLE BRAVELY AGAINST LARGE NATIONALIST FORCE IN FOREIGN QUARTER

PEKING, May 5.—(AP)—Scant advices from Tsinan, battleground of Chinese Nationalists and Japanese troops who formed a protective cordon around foreigners concentrated there, today indicated that the situation continued to be extremely serious.

(Word was received at Shanghai from the Tsinan consulate that all Americans were safe.)

The firing which continued all day yesterday, however, ceased at 7 p. m. Four hours later a message from Tsinan said there was no more firing at that hour.

Advices said several Japanese women were assaulted and killed by the Southerners (Nationalists).

The Japanese captured from the Nationalists two mountain guns, 20,000 shells, 2,000,000 rounds of rifle ammunition and 2,000 hand grenades.

Japanese Military Losses

The last information put the Japanese military casualties up to 10 a. m. yesterday at 10 killed and 32 wounded.

The Northern government protested to the Japanese legation against the sending of Japanese troops into Tsinan on the ground that the Chinese authorities were able to maintain order.

The Japanese and foreigners at Tsinan were still beleaguered and semi-isolated today.

Japanese reinforcements were heading for the city from Tsingtao and Manchuria.

The defeated Northerners were straggling through eastern Shantung. Japanese civilians evacuated Weihsien about 150 miles east of Tsinan. Japanese marines landed at Lungkow on the eastern coast of Shantung.

The American, English and Japanese consuls and naval officers at Chefoo conferred on methods to be used to maintain order there.

Chinese Out of Control.

The extent to which the Chinese got beyond control of their commanders was indicated in a report from Tsinan today. It said that Colonel Sasaki, the Japanese officer who had been conducting negotiations with the Nationalist commander, General Chiang Kai-Shek was torn from his escort. He was robbed and bound and stood against the wall to be shot. Staff officers from Chiang's headquarters rescued him.

It is learned that a body of 6,000 Communist troops are among the forces at Tsinanfu. This particular body was disbanded at Canton recently, but from there proceeded to Kiangsi province where various outrages were charged against them. At Nanking later they were recruited into Chiang Kai-Shek's regular army for the campaign against the Northerners. They are under the command of General Ho Yao-Tsu, whose troops are said to have begun the rioting which has led to the present situation at Tsinan-Fu.

PEKING, May 5.—(AP)—Besieged in Tsinan by 40,000 Nationalist troops, a small force of 3,000 Japanese today were fighting in defense of the foreign quarter, where persons of various nationalities have been concentrated for their safety.

Major General Toakura, Japanese commander, took every available man from the Tsingtao garrison and was leading a forced march of 2,000 troops along the line of the Shantung railway to relieve their beleagured comrades.

There was no confirmation of the loss of any foreign lives other than Japanese, but the Japanese military wireless stated that the troops were protecting other nationals. From this it was assumed that the two American consuls, Edward F. Stanton and Ernest B. Price, and the remaining American residents, mostly missionaries, were inside the Japanese cordon. The American legation at Peking has had no reports from the Tsinan consulate since May 1.

The troops from Tsingtao had a difficult march of some 200 miles before them since the railway between Tsingtao and Tsinan had been systematically destroyed at a dozen places. Advices from Tokyo said the Japanese military stores at Tsingtao were sufficient for only a few days.

Serious Complications.

Serious international complications were forecast as the result of the fighting. There was much conjecture as to the effect of it on the northward campaign of the Nationalists and experts believed it would be checked until the snarl with Japan was straightened out.

Japan has virtually a free hand to deal with the situation and it was believed that the fighting had strenghtened the hand of the Japanese cabinet in any positive action deemed necessary.

The Japanese command at Tsinan said that the attack by the Nationalists was premeditated. They asserted that it began simultaneously at many points, that the railway had been cut to prevent the movement of reinforcements and that the Nationalists had previously issued grenades in anticipation of street fighting.

Commander Loses Control.

The Japanese commander said that the situation was apparently beyond control of Chiang Kai-Shek, commander in chief of the Nationalists. It was believed that his subordinates were trying to discredit him as they did at the time of the Nanking affair of March, 1927. The first aggressors were stated to be Hunaese troops under General Ho Yao-Tsu and it was recalled that Hunanese were responsible for the Nanking outrages.

A true had been reached at 7 o'clock yesterday under which the Chinese were to withdraw from the foreign quarter, but a few hours later this was broken, indicating that matters were beyond control of the Nationalist command.

Up to that time the Japanese troops defending the foreign quarter to the west of the walled city were known to have lost five killed and 28 wounded. Lieutenant-General Fukada, although unable to report accurately, expressed fear that several Japanese civilians outside the defended area had been murdered by Nationalists. General Fukada's troops made a forced march to reach Tsinan because the railway had been shut. They were called upon continuously for 36 hours to meet continual attacks by enormously superior forces of Chinese.

Machine Guns Used.

The Japanese troops were isolated in two groups to the east and west of the city. It was with great difficulty that they repelled the infuriated Nationalists by the skillful use of machine guns placed on hastily flung up barricades of sandbags at key points.

Advices reaching Washington said that although the situation around Chefoo in Eastern Shantung, where there are several American warships, was quiet, anti-Japanese leaflets were appearing. These were presumed to be of Nationalist origin.

These advices forecast that the Chefoo region would be the point to which large forces of defeated Northern troops would go and said the Japanese at Chefoo were making preparations accordingly.

The Northern forces were reported to have scattered, some 8,000 of them endeavoring to enter the walled city of Weinsien, 120 miles east of Tsinan.

SHANGHAI, May 5.—(AP)—The international Shanghai defense forces today were preparing against any possible retaliation by the Chinese because of the Nationalist—Japanese battle at Tsinan.

The blame for that conflict was charged to the Japanese in official news dispatches from the Nationalist headquarters at Nanking. These stated that the Japanese "unwarrantedly arrested members of the propaganda corps of the Nationalist party and threatened to shoot any one passing specified points in the city."

General Chiang Kai-Shek was sated to have issued a proclamation to the Chinese residents of Tsinan urging them to "remain calm despite the provocative action."

SHANGHAI, May 5.—(AP)—The Standard Oil company is seeking to learn the condition of two Americans employees at Tsinan-Fu following information from its Nanking office that reports there indicated foreigners other than Japanese had been objects of the anti-foreign rioting.

No further details were obtainable.

SHOOTING OF ELKS SECRETARY BY TWO GUARDSMEN CHARGED

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 7.—(AP)—feeling in Western New York ran high today against two Coast Guardsmen held on a charge of shooting J. D. Hanson, secretary of Niagra Falls Lodge of Elks. Hanson was in Niagra Falls hospital in a serious condition. One bullett entered his head and destroyed his right eye.

Glenn Jennings and Chris Dew, accused of the shooting, were confined to quarters at Fort Niagra.

They had been detailed to watch for rum runners along the highways. Hanson was returning to the Falls after taking a party of friends to Lewiston from the Silver Jubilee celebration of the North Tonawanda Lodge of Elks. The Coast Guardsmen, clad in overalls and sheepskin jackets, suspecting he was a rum runner, commended him to stop.

Hanson apparently thought they were highwaymen. He tried to speed away, the Guardsmen fired several shots. One went through the windshield and entered the driver's right temple. The car ran into a rocky bank and stopped.

James Franklin, exalted ruler of Niagra Falls Elks, swore out a warrant charging Jennings and Dew with assault. State troopers went to Fort Niagra to make the arrests, but Captain Beck refused to give up the two men. He said they would be detained in quarters until the federal attorney at Buffalo had time to look into the matter.

Reported 300 Japs Killed in Fighting

TOKYO, May 5.—(AP)—A message received from Tientsin today said that it was officially reported from Tsinan that more than 300 Japanese residents were killed when nationalist forces looted the city. There was no mention of foreign casualties and the exact figures of Japanese casualties were still unknown.

Americans Reported Safe in Tsinan

SHANGHAI, May 5. —(AP)— All Americans in Tsinan are safe, says a dispatch dated noon yesterday and received here today from the consulate at Tsinan.

The dispatch was received at the American consulate at Shanghai.

Foreign firms and missions represented at Tsinan attempted to establish communications with the city where Chinese and Japanese clashed but failed.

The Japanese wireless station at Tsinan has been silent since yesterday afternoon. There was some anxiety here because up to the present this has been almost the sole source of news from there.

Americans-British Safe.

SHANGHAI, May 5.—(AP)—Chiang Kai-Shek, commander in chief of the Nationalists sent a wireless message from Tsinan that the British and American consul generals and their nationals are safe. (This confirms dispatches to a similar effect).

Residences Being Looted.

TOKYO, May 5.—(AP)—All Japanese and other foreign residences at Tsinan with the exception of those inside the settlement which the Japanese troops are defending are being looted systematically amid the most gruesome scenes, according to messages from that city.

The bodies of six more Japanese, residents of the area outside the settlement, including some women have been discovered, all bearing signs of the most brutal atrocities.

Fighting Has Ceased.

TOKcO, May 5.—(AP)—There has been no fighting at Tsinan since this morning, according to messages received here from that city.

RUMANIA ALARMED IN ANTICIPATION OF PEASANT ACTION

HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS GATHERING AT ALBA JULIA FOR CONGRESS

ALBA JULIA, Rumania, May 5. — (AP) — Aroused from their Eastern lethargy, vast horde of peasants was plodding into this city today to voice a widespread demand for a change in the regime at Bucharest.

Many of them are illiterate, the majority know nothing about politics or government, but they are keenly sensitive to wrongs and eager to participate in the great national referendum of the National Peasants Party tomorrow which will express the will of 15,000,000 peasants who constitute the backbone of Rumania. This meeting will protest against the Liberal government of Vintila Bratianu and Juliu Maniu, leader of the Peqsants Party, has promised to give them a better government.

Such a tremendous meeting is unparalelled in the history of Rumania, but neutral foreign observers believe that it will be a long time before the Peasants Party realizes its aims. The Bratianu regime exercises complete political mastery and has ironclad control over the nation's productive life. Its firm grip grasps all the treasures of the country, including rich oil, fields, coal mines, forests, fisheries, foundaries and factories, granaries, water power, transportation, banks and great corporations.

To Make Grievances Known.

The most that is expected is that the congress will make known to the world some of the grievances and disabilities under which the untutored masses are suffering.

"I will not bow to mob pressure and yield the reigns of government to the inexperienced, incompetent rabble," is the attitude of Premier Bratianu to the demands of the Peasants Party.

Despite the action of the government in requisitioning all automobiles, reducing the number of trains and interposing every form of impediment to the success of the congress, Maniu declared that by tomorrow, 250,000 peasants would be in Alba Julia.

Many of the pilgrims left their homes weeks ago. They slept with their clothes on in the streets, highways and parks and as dawn came thousands more poured in to join the swelling ranks.

They carried bedding on their backs and the wives trudged along laden with live chickens, suckling pigs, loaves of bread and other rations for the stay. Many men were barefooted and wore shaggy sheepskin coats. The women were gay in their multi-colored national costumes, with their hair in long braids and great clusters of gold and silver coins hung about their necks.

May Proclaim Republic.

BUDAPEST, Hungary, May 5.—(AP)—Dispatches from Alba Julia say that the whole of Rumania is alarmed in anticipation of the proclamation of a Transylvanian Republic by the Peasants Congress which convenes there tomorrow.

The government is said to be taking desperate measures to counteract this move. Seventeen airplanes circled over the Cluj district yesterday, the dispatches add, distributing thousands of handbills warning the peasants against "Communist trickery" and urging them not to attend the congress.

At the same time it is said contact has been preserved between the 'peasants' leaders and the government, although there is no concord of ideas.

The cabinet is expected to decide today whether it will allow a mass meeting of peasants at Bucharest tomorrow.

No New Cases Are Reported Monday

No new cases of smallpox were reported over the week-end by Dr. W. R. Sneed, and the indications are thought to be very favorable for the rapid elimination of the disease.

No cases were released during the period and approximately 30 cases are still restricted under the quarantine regulations.

Sore arms and high fevers following the vaccination process have played havoc with attendance records in many of the schools, and about 300 were reported absent from the high school alone Friday, and similar condition existed in the others.

Attendance was so curtailed at the William B. Travis school that the cafeteria was closed Friday and Monday but the situation was so much better Monday that plans were being made to re-open Tuesday.

BELIEVED HARMONY FACTION WINNER IN PRECINCT MEETINGS

of about two to one. The anti-Smith element counted 60 precincts with 161 delegates, the Smith supporters 31 princincts and 84 delegates and seven precincts, carrying some 10 votes, were classed as "neutral." Smith adherents, however, announced they would contest five precinct convention results.

Tarrant Against Smith.

Governor Smith made perhaps his worst showing in Tarrant county and Fort Worth, where the W. C. T. U. is strongly entrenched. Practically every one of the 100 precincts refused to support a single resolution submitted by supporters of the New Yorker.

Thirty-three of the 39 democratic precincts in Bexar (San Antonio). A strong republican center, were for uninstructed delegation while three were pledged to Governor Smith and three to dry candidates.

Governor Moody has made it plain that he is insisting only on a fight against the nomination of Governor Smith and not against his election after nomination, which the constitutional democrats declame means that he expects the New York man to be nominated despite a show of prohibition ardor by the Texas delegation at the national convention.

Smith Lost in Harris.

HOUSTON, May 7. —(AP)—With the anti-Al Smith forces assured control of the Harris county democratic convention Tuesday on the basis of practically complete returns from Saturday's precinct conventions, threats to bolt and send a contesting Harris county delegation to the state convention at Beaumont were made by Smith leaders Monday.

A checkup indicated that at least six precincts will have rival delegations at the county convention, each claiming to be the lawful delegation for its precinct. The six precincts have 26 of 288 votes in the convention. R. L. Henry, chairman of the Harris county Smith-for-president club, issued a call for a caucus of Smith delegates tonight.

Whit Montgomery to Read to Woodmen

Announcement was made Monday that Whitney Montgomery noted Navarro county poet will appear before the local Woodmen Friday night, May 11, at which time he will read from his popular book of poems, "Corn Silks and Cotton Blossoms."

The general public is invited and the meeting will be held in the W. O. W. Hall on the second floor of the I. O. O. F. Building at 8 p. m.

Preparations will be made to take care of a large audience.

Louisiana Highway Commission Unafraid

BATON ROUGE, La., May 7.—(AP)—The Louisiana highway commission "has nothing to fear" from any investigation of its activities as proposed by State Senator J. O. Fernandez of New Orleans, Major Frank T. Payne, commission chairman, said today. His statement was followed by one from former Governor Ruffin G. Pleasant, vice chairman of the commission, disclaiming any irregularity in the purchase of the $500,000 worth of equipment for the maintenance department of the commission.

COMMANDER AND OFFICERS OF SHIP ARE EXONERATED

NO BLAME ATTACHED TO CREW OF PAULDING IN SINKING OF SUBMARINE

WASHINGTON, May 7. —(AP)— Lieutenant Commander J. S. Baylis, the skipper, and all others on board the coast guard destroyer Paulding when she crashed into and sunk the submarine S-4 off Provincetown, Mass., last December 17, have been exonerated of all blame in connection with the disaster in a report by a coast guard board of inquiry.

The report, made public last night with the approval of Secretary Mellon, disagrees with the original decision of a naval investigating board attaching "serious blame" to the Paulding commander for alleged failure to sight the submarine in time to prevent the collision. Secretary Wilbur, however, had deferred this phase of the inquiry to the Treasury, which has supervision over the coast guard, for its attention.

Taking up the testimony of witnesses in the naval investigation in detail, the coast guard board found nothing to warrant the charge that any of the Paulding's men were responsible, emphasized particularly the absence of a warning flag in the vicinity of the submarine's trial course, and recommended that no further action be taken and that Commander Baylis be notified officially that neither he nor any of his officers or men is held responsible for the disaster.

PIONEER CORSICANA WOMAN PASSED AWAY EARLY HOUR MONDAY

York City; and Eugene Miller, Corsicana; and nine great grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be C. T. Banister, C. L. Knox, Rufus Hary, Tom Kerr, A. N. Justiss and Clifford Tatum.

Mrs. Miller was the daughter of the Rev. Hampton McKinney, founder of the city of Corsicana. She is the last surviving member of the original caravan of twenty-five headed by Hampton McKinney coming from Illinois to Navarro county in 1846. McKinney was a Methodist minister and when he arrived in this county he built the old McKinney Tavern, the first house to be constructed on the site which is now Corsicana. The McKinney Tavern played an important part in the early history of Corsicana and Navarro county entertaining many of the men prominent in Texas history. John H. Reagan has been a guest and Roger Q. Mills and C. M. Winkler were permanent boarders.

Hampton McKinney was the son of John L. McKinney, soldier of the Revolution who was presented with a pair of silver spurs in appreciation for his services as a soldier and his many deeds of bravery.

Mrs. Miller's late husband, John L. Miller, came to Navarro county in 1850 from Murray county, Tennessee. He was a close friend of Jas L. Polk and was with Polk when he received the nomination for the presidency.

Mrs. Luther Garrett is recovering from an operation at the Corsicana Hospital and Clinic.

EAST TEXAS C. C. MEETING ATTRACTS MANY THOUSANDS

and faith in their section and its reginal chamber of commerce by giving whole-hearted support.

"A new spirit is sweeping East Texas—this section is undergoing perhaps the most revolutionary change in its history. This change is noticeable in a score of physical manifestations. There is hardly a community in East Texas without a building program; there is hardly a community that has not joined the ranks of development and progress by organizing a local chamber of commerce."

One of the most important accomplishments of the agricultural department of the chamber, Mr. Kelly said, was the perfection and distribution of the "Etex marketing label, which insures high-grade products."

Some Recommendations.

Mr. Kelly made the following recommendations:

"First—Adequate support of Texas A. & M. College and the teachers' colleges in East Texas to the end that these institions may function at a maximum of efficiency and meet the needs of the youth of the land.

"Second—A continuation and, if possible, an enlargement, of the safe farming program as sponsored by this organization in co-operation with the extension service and other agencies.

"Third—Since timber is one of the chief products of East Texas, and the problem of timber protection, conservation and reforestation is one of great and growing importance to the people of this section, I strongly urge that necessary financial support be accorded to the forestry division of A. & M. College in order that it be enabled to function properly. I am of the opinion that the support given by the legislature in the past has been far below the sum necessary to meet the needs of this department and I respectfully urge a liberal measure of support in the future.

Asks Agriculture Aid.

"Fourth—A personal survey of the sub-stations of the Texas Experiment Station located in East Texas reveals that these stations are sorely handicapped in doing research work so necessary to this section, due to lack of equipment and finances; therefore, we should fully solicit the legislature to provide more funds in the future for the support of these stations in order to give a much needed service in the proper development of agriculture in this territory.

"It is specifically recommended that provision be made for research work in the feeding and care of dairy cows in this part of the state, since the industry is undergoing a great development at this time and no work of this character has ever been done in East Texas."

SICK AND CONVALESCENT.

Twin boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Sampson at the Corsicana Hospital and Clinic Thursday night, one of the boys dying shortly after birth. The mother and remaining boy were doing nicely Friday.

AN EXHILARATING EFFECT

A bottle of Herbine on the shelf at home is like having a doctor in the house all the time. It gives instant relief when the digestion gets out of order or the bowels fail to act. ENNIS MAN FOUND NEAR CREEK WITH WOUND IN HEAD

INQUEST TO BE HELD OVER MAN MISSING SINCE SATURDAY NIGHT

ENNIS, May 7.—(AP)—Frank Spaniel, Jr., was found dead in a clump of bushes on the Waxahachie creek four miles west of Ennis today with a bullet wound in his forehead. A pistol was nearby.

He had been missing since Saturday night, but his family thought he had gone to a dance and then fishing. Justice of the Peace Cox of Waxahachie was to hold an inquest.

KENTUCKY SHERIFF KILLED BY ALLEGED BOOTLEGGER IN HOME

IRVINE, Ky., May 7.—(AP)— The sheriff of Estill county, Arthur Brookshire, 45, was shot to death last night by Dave Estes, 30, alleged bootlegger, whose home the officer was attempting to search. Estes was arrested.

Shortly before midnight county authorities made preparations to take the prisoner away when it was learned thaa a crowd of more than 500 had gathered at his home where lay the body of the slain sheriff.

According to witnesses, Brookshire was killed when he showed Estes a search warrant.

Two Corsicana Men Ride With Pedley

Earl Pressley and Albert Levi have returned from a several days fishing trip to Lake Kemp, Wichita Falls. On the return trip they stopped at the Fort Worth flying field where they met Pilot Chas. Pedley.

While at the field Pressley and Levi were taken for a ride in an airplane, the sister ship of the Spirit of St. Louis, with Pedley at the controls. The plane was an upholstered cabin with a capacity of five persons. Pedley is flying this ship of his off days as he is permanently employed flying the U. S. mail for the Texas Air Transport, Inc.

Pedley stated he would fly the cabin plane to Corsicana within the next few days.

ADDITIONAL ARMY AND NAVY UNITS OF JAPAN SENT TO CHINA.

the women were concentrated at the waterfront in readiness for embarkation if this was thought advisable. Similar preparations were made at Chinkiang, a little below Nanking, and Kiukiang in Kiangsi province.

To reinforce the Yangtze river patrol an additional destroyer division was ordered to Shanghai. While the Japanese garrison at Tsinan has been reinforced to a total of more than 4,000 men, an additional 2,700 troops were steaming from Manchuria to Tsingtao, where they will land with Tsinan as their destination.

In Peking there was anxiety lest Japan seize the present occasion to resume military and economic domination of the province of Shantung. It was asked whether Japan would turn back the calendar to 1914 when the soldiers of the Mikado seized Shantung from Germany and with it the Shantung railway and occupied Kiaochow.

Fear Seizure Again.

As a sequel to the Washington conference the province was handed back to China but now China's payments on a 40,000,000 yen ($20,000,000)) bond issue by which retrocession of the railway was purchased have been in default for nearly two years. This, it was thought, might strengthen the hands of those who advocate re-establishment of the status which existed before the Washington conference.

Assurances of the safety of American, British and German communities at Tsinan limited the issue to Japan and Nationalist China. The rifles at Tsinan have been silent since Friday and General Chiang Kai-Shek, Nationalist commander-in-chief, is discredited and the unity of his command broken.

The revolutionary drive toward Peking has halted, perhaps for months, perhaps permanently. In the meantime the position of the Northern armies grows stronger.

E. D. Adams underwent an operation at the Navarro Count Hospital Thursday, and was resting well Friday.

CAPITALISTS WELL PLEASED WITH CITY AND ENTIRE STATE

EASTERN MILL OWNERS AND PARTY SPEND SEVERAL HOURS IN CORSICANA

Civic pride and cleanliness, beautiful homes, the advanced development of the people and industries, and the high types of laborers were among the outstanding qualities which were highly praised by the party of eastern capitalists who visited Corsicana Saturday morning.

The party has toured several sections of the state as guests of Governor Dan Moody and John W. Carpenter, chairman of the industrial committee appointed by the state executive to promote industrial advancement.

"Your civic pride in Corsicana which is expressed in your beautiful homes and well-kept streets, is one of the surprising qualities which we have found generally over the state, and which we seldom find in the north," said Gordon Bunker of the Bliss-Fabian Co. of New York. Continuing, he said that he had particularly noticed the higher type of citizenship as a whole than found in many sections of the north.

After his visit to the Corsicana Cotton Mills, Mr. Bunker said that the employees were the healthiest group that he had ever seen in a mill, and their pride in their work, neatness of appearance and general attitude toward their tasks were surprising and gratifying.

Labor Conditions Contrasted.

Philip M. Tucker, investment broker and mill-share owner of Boston, very concretely illustrated the contrast between labor conditions in the north and south when he told of an experience on his Texas tour. He was visiting another cotton mill in Texas and saw a young woman tending a large number of machines. He inquired of her if the work were hard and she replied in the affirmative, but when asked if she did not have all that she could do replied that she could do more. In the northern mills, according to Mr. Tucker, the attitude of the machine tender would have been to do as little as possible so that there would have been work for more people.

The increasing tendency in the north is toward machine labor according to Mr. Tucker, not necessarily for greater production, but for faster production so that the employees would be able to have more time to devote to their own interests without hindering the industry in which they were employed. This tendency already has a strong foothold in Texas according to Mr. Tucker, who believes that the new tendency is one of the greatest ever advanced.

Citizenship Praised.

The personnel of the state was highly praised by John F. Bannon, of the Defiance Bleacheries at Barrowsville, Mass., and Greenville, S. C., who represents one of the greatest finishers of cotton goods in the world.

"I have never seen a people who so consistently hold up to the highest standards of citizenship, who are so capable and hospitable as the people of Texas," said Mr. Bannon. Discussing the prospects of his industry entering the state, Mr. Bannon said that it would be several years before his group would be needed for the majority of the mills in Texas were manufacturing goods that need no bleaching or finishing; but as for prospects for general industrial development no state had any greater possibilities.

Mr. Brannon also spoke very highly of the beautiful homes in Corsicana, and was particularly pleased with the beauty of the Corsicana Country club.

"Texas is much better developed today than the Carolinas were twenty years ago," said Wilmot R. Evans, president of the Boston Five Cent Savings Bank, who is making his first visit to the state. He pointed out that Texas today was about the same age industrially as the Carolinas and other Atlantic coast states twenty years ago.

Mr. Evans, as one of the directors of the Saco-Lowell Machinery company, was particularly interested in the large number of machines made by his company that were in use in the local plant.

The textile industry in the north is working under heavy handicaps, and is almost a losing proposition, according to Mr. Evans; the trend has been southward along the Atlantic coast, but now that these states have been almost saturated, the eyes of the industry are pointed toward the southwest.

Texas Has Bright Future.

Texas has the brightest future of any of the southern states in the opinion of Mr. Evans for a great industrial development, especially in the textile line. With a favorable climate, a great production of cotton, and wonderful labor conditions, the banker said that there was no reason why Texas should not take place among the leaders in industrial development. The loyalty, helpful attitude, and disposition of the laborers in Texas was pointed out as one of the greatest potential factors.

"You have the resources, the wealth and all that remains for Texas to do to take the lead industrially is to make the effort," was the terse summary of F. W. Denio, vice-president of the Old Colony Trust company of Boston. His company has loaned millions of dollars for industrial development in Texas, he said.

The party arrived in Corsicana early Saturday morning on board a special car from Houston. They were taken to the Corsicana Country Club for breakfast, where they were welcomed to Corsicana by President C. L. Jester of the Chamber of Commerce. John F. Bannon, Wilmot R. Evans, and Philip M. Tucker made short talks for the visitors. Tucker paid tribute to electricity as the factor which is leading toward the humanizing of the industrial world.

Following the breakfast, the visitors were taken through the residential sections of the city and through the business district to the Corsicana Cotton Mills, where they made a tour of inspection under the direction of J. H. Hook, superintendent. The visitors were outspoken in their compliments to the [illegible] particular attention to the [illegible] of the workers, each department being clothed in garments of different colors.

Operating at Capacity.

Every department of the mill was operating to capacity for the tour. The visitors began in the opening room, where the first step was taken in the manufacture of duck and followed the intricate course of the product through the entire process.

From the opening room where the cotton is taken from the bales and started on its journey, the party went to the picker room where the staple is thoroughly combed many times to remove all trash and knots from the cotton, before going to the carding machines where the actual manufacturing process starts. The staple is carried from one machine to another each step giving it a greater tensile strength from the combining of numerous strands and at the same time reducing it in size.

In the slasher room, the warp is woven into the thread that composes the cloth, and is then wound on huge spools for use in the warping room, where the foundation for the cloth is prepared. Some idea of the complicated process may be imagined from the fact that 12-oz. duck is made from a warp containing 310 strands.

In the slasherr oom, the warp is treated with a starchy composition which makes the cotton fibres tough, and enables them to stand the strain of the final weaving process. The final touches are given the duck in the cloth room where the materials are measured, put up in bolts and labeled.

Many of the visitors were familiar with the process and were greatly interested in the comparison of northern and southern methods of manufacture.

Auto Trip to Trinidad.

Following the trip through the mills, the party boarded automobiles for the trip to Trinidad. A side trip through the Powell oil fields has been incorporated in the itinerary, and the party will arrive at the power plant in Trinidad about noon where lunch will be served them. In the afternoon, the party will visit the power plant under the supervision of President John W. Carpenter of the Texas Power and Light company, who is heading the tour. Later in the afternoon, they will visit the lignite mines near Malakoff and then return to Dallas.

Those comprising the party in Corsicana were: Wilmot R. Evans, president of the Boston Five Cent Savings Bank; Gordon Bunker of the Bliss-Fabyan company of New York; Philip M. Tucker, investment broker and mill share owner of Boston; John F. Bannon, Defiance Bleachery of Barrowsville, Mass., and Greenville, S. C.; F. W. Denio, vice-president of the Old Colony Trust corporation of Boston; John W. Carpenter, president of the Texas Power and Light company, Dallas; F. W. Grace, general superintendent of the M. K. & T. Railroad; G. B. Richardso, Texas Power and Light company; J. B. Thomas, chief engineer of the Texas Power and Light company; W. H. Hynds, Texas Power and Light company; and Beeman Fisher, Texas Power and Light company.

OKLAHOMA ICE DEALER WOUNDED RESISTING ARREST

TULSA, May 4.—(AP)—Believed to have slain his wife, Mrs. Luccille Fray, 25, at her Tulsa home, and then to have killed his divorced wife, Mrs. Laura Fray, 35, at Jenks, Okla., early today, Charles Fray, 37, former Jenks ice manufacturer, was himself probably dying at a hospital here from a bullet received in resisting arrest.

Both women were killed by gun shot charges. Mrs. Laura Fray, the divorced wife, was killed in the restaurant she owned at 12:30 this morning. She was awakened by someone breaking down the front door. Taking a revolver, she went to the front of the restaurant to investigate. Her head was blown off by a shot gun charge fired by the intruder.

County officers were notified, and went to the home of Fray's mother, Mrs. Anna Fray at Jenks. They found Fray hiding behind a door. He fired a shot gun at A. G. Curtis, Jenks town marshal, striking the officer in the shoulder. Bill Pinion, deputy sheriff, dropped Fray with a revolver shot in the abdomen.

Fray was brought to Tulsa and several hours later, officers going to Fray's home found that Mrs. Lucille Fray, the second wife, had been shot through the abdomen by a shot gun charge.

LEAK DISCOVERED AT BOTTOM OF BIG SOUTH CAROLINA DAM

GREENVILLE, S. C., May 5.—(AP)—Hope of saving the Table Cove dam, 31 miles north of here, grew today when engineers succeeded in opening the flood pipe, thus taking the pressure off the breaks which developed under the dam late yesterday.

The gate to the drain pipe was opened by means of a long key taken to the scene from Greenville and the flow of water out of the dam immediately increased, swelling the South Caluda creek below the dam to bank full.

Water still poured out of the break around the pipe where seepage started the first leak. Torrents also came out of the fissures which have been created to the left of the center of the dam by the geyser-like action of the water escaping through seepage leaks.

While engineers still believe the drain pipe was broken at some point under the nuge dirt dam, they hoped that opening of the flood gate had created such a current that all impediments would be washed out and the lake lowered through this hole without further breaks.

The valley below the dam was the probable path of waters should quiet and deserted. Everyone in the dam break had moved to the hills.

On hill-tops and mountain sides the refugees set temporary abode. There was no suffering and no aid was asked.

GREENVILLE, S. C., May 5.—(AP)—The Saluda river valley was deserted today as the specter of flood disaster hovered over the mill towns and farms along the river's banks.

Impending collapse of the huge new earthern dam of the Greenville water system sent 20,000 residents of the valley to higher ground last night, when B. W. Andere, Table Rock Inn keeper, broadcast a warning that the 5,000,000,000 gallons of water impounded in the artificial lake were pouring through a big leak around the outlet valve at the bottom of the dyke.

The inn keeper's warning was carried by courier and telephone and thousands left their homes to the mercy of the floods, taking only what possessions they could carry.

Throughout the night the river rose rapidly, as waters poured through the leak which gradually grew, while other sections of the dam showed signs of weakening.

Seepage in the huge dyke which is 700 feet long, fourteen feet high and 750 feet thick at the base with a fifty foot crown was noted yesterday and shortly after six o'clock last night the inn keeper discovered the leak about the outlet valve and hastened to notify the families living immediately below the dam.

Today it was believed that every one who lived in the endangered area had heeded the alarm and sought safety on nearby hills.

Water behind the dam, recently completed to give Greenville a constand supply of water, measured 115 feet deep when the leak was found and ten hours later had dropped only two feet, leaving 113 feet of water to sweep down the valley should the rapidly weakening dam collapse under pressure of the immense lake.

Greenville seven miles east of the river was not endangered, but the lower sections of the mill towns of Piedmont, with 4000 population, Peltzer, 6000 and Ward Shoals were imperiled. Six dams below the one at Table Rock Cove also were believed to be in danger.

While no loss of life was feared, extensive property damage was inevitable.

The dam was completed last fall at a cost of $1,000,000 but had not yet been put to use as the reservoir it created had not completely filled. Dedication ceremonies had been set for May 24. The system was to operate by gravity and no pumping station was maintained at the dam.

YOUTH CONFESSES TO SLAYING SEVEN MEMBERS HIS FAMILY

MYSTERY SURROUNDING THE DEATH OF PARENTS AND CHILDREN CLEARED

EL DORADO, Kan., May 5.—(AP)—Owen Oberst, 17-year-old farmer youth, has confessed he shot and killed his parents and his five brothers and sisters at their farm home near Burns the night of April 20, then set fire to the farmhouse to destroy evidence of the deed.

In the boys' confession obtained by County Attorney Stanley Taylor late yesterday, and announced by county officers here today. Oberst said he had planned the deed only two hours before he carried out his plan.

He "just got mad" at his father because his father would not allow him to use the family automobile, Oberst said. He insisted his mother had "nothing to do with it," and that he had planned and carried out the killings unaided.

Oberst, held in the county jail without bond, will be charged today with first degree murder, Sheriff E. E. McKnight said.

Throughout repeated grilling since tho fire, the youth had maintained that he was in Florence attending a picture show at the time of the tragedy. Yesterday, officers said, he broke down and voluntarily told of the killings. Previously he had been cleared of blame.

Decides to Kill Family.

The killings took place about 6 o'clock the night of April 20, the confession states. Oberst admitted he had been having trouble with his father, William F. Oberst, for some time, and finally decided to end it all by disposing of the family.

His father being away from home, the boy got the family rifle, called the younger children. Herbert, 6; Hugh, 10; Ralph, 14; and Edith, 8 into the kitchen and began shooting. He shot his mother and other sister, Dorothy, 16, as they came into the room to learn the cause of the children's screams. He then waited for his father to come home, and shot him.

He piled all the bodies in the kitchen, except that of his mother, Oberst's confession said. After going upstairs and changing clothes, he poured kerosene over the bodies, threw a lighted newspaper into the kitchen, closed the door and started in the family car for Florence.

Owen Oberst has been living with his uncle, Fred Oberst, an auctioneer, since the tragedy.

FARM WEEK IN WASHINGTON

By FRANK I. WELLER.
(Associated Press Farm Editor)

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Not in the catalogue of "administration measures," the born borer bill by Rep. Fred S. Purnell, republican, Indiana, authorizing an expenditure of $7,000,000 for the control of the European corn borer, has been passed by the seventieth congress and now awaits the action of President Coolidge.

The plan outlined in the bill contemplates paying the farmer for labor necessary in the cleanup of cornfields in the area determined by the secretary of agriculture to be necessary to retard further spread of the insect. It is proposed that the work begin at the thinly infested border and extend as far back into the heavily infested territory as funds will permit.

In the belief that some of the most effective work can be done in the fall in properly harvesting the corn crop, the bill provides for a thorough cleanup during the fall of 1928 and the spring season of 1929.

While the department of agriculture has not opposed the measure and consistently has said that control work must continue if American corn fields are to be protected from the invader, the theory that federal aid again should be extended to the corn borer area did not have the active support of Secretary of Agriculture Jardine. He has insisted repeatedly that the burden of control while the government act only in a scouting and advisory capacity. The secretary's views are understood to be in line with those of the president.

Unlike the $10,000,000 corn borer appropriation last year, the Purnell appropriation limits to one percent the amount that may be spent for new machinery and equipment. It is believed the implements used in 1927 are practically sufficient to continue the campaign this fall and next spring. The bill also provides that not more than nine percent of the $7,000,000 may be expended for administrative purposes. That would leave 90 percent, or $6,300,000 available for paying farmers for the extra work involved in the clean-up.

Farm interests have supported the bill strongly on the contention that the bulk of the farmers called upon in the campaign will be in regions where corn corer damage is negligible, or at least light, and that the control work they do will be as much for the benefit of the corn belt as a whole as for themselves, wherefore they should be remunerated for their services.

Congress has expressed itself as being pleased with the success of the 1927 campaign in reducing the numerical increase of borers in the heavily infested states.

ALLEGED GEORGIA FLOGGERS ARRESTED AND HELD IN BAIL

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga. May 4.—(AP)—Identified as members of a band of four men who flogged Jim Eagles, farmer, with thongs studded with tacks, three citizens of Baldwin and Wilkinson counties were under arrest today.

Eagles, in a serious condition at a hospital because of many lacerations on his body and shock, said he did not know the fourth man in the group that took him from his Baldwin county home Wednesday night and lashed him into insensibility.

The 45-year-old farmer said they called him at midnight and, after asking to buy whiskey, dragged him away in his night clothes.

J. W. Hubbard, member of the Baldwin democratic central committee, Fountain Hardy and L. L. Smith, Wilkinson county farmers, the three accused men, were at liberty on bonds of $1,000 each on the flogging charge.

HOUSE APPROVED M'NARY-HAUGEN BILL BY VOTE 204 TO 121

DISPUTED EQUALIZATION FEE FOR CROP STABILIZATION IS RETAINED

WASHINGTON, May 4.—(AP)—The McNary-Haugen farm relief bill today entered the last lap of its legislative journey to the White House.

For the second consecutive year the measure, with its disputed equalization fee for crop stabilization, was approved last night by the house. The vote was 204 to 121.

The bill now must go back to the senate for a smoothing over of minor differences. These are expected to be ironed out quickly and President Coolidge then will be forced to pass again upon a farm relief plan containing a provision which prompted him to veto last year's bill.

The house vote was 13 less than the two-thirds majority that would be required to override presidential disapproval which administration leaders freely predict will be forthcoming. The senate several weeks ago approved the measure in a slightly different form by a vote of 53 to 23, or a few votes more than the necessary two-thirds.

A year ago the house passed the bill by a vote of 214 to 178, while the senate vote was 47 to 39.

Climaxed Hectic Week.

Final action by the house last night climaxed a week of hectic discussion during which the possible effect of the measure on the coming presidential campaign frequently was referred to. The debate at times also touched upon the presidential aspirations of Frank O. Lowden of Illinois and Vice-President Dawes.

The vote came after frantic but unsuccessful efforts had been made by opponents of the equalization fee to eliminate that provision, the battle continuing with unabated fury to the very last.

The vote on passage found party lines split asunder with 101 republicans, 100 democrats, two farmer-labor members and one socialist joining in support of the bill, while 68 republicans, and 53 democrats lined up in opposition.

With the exception of changes approved by Chairman Haugen of the agriculture committee and co-author of the bill, all amendments were turned down.

The proposals offered exceeded a score in number, but of these only three were approved. They provided:

Three Proposals Approved.

Extension of the right to cooperative associations to decide, through the commodity advisory councils that the bill would create, when the equalization fee would be placed in operation.

Application of the fee machinery to packers as well as livestock raisers whenever it might be put in operation upon cattle and swine.

Selection of the members of the proposed advisory councils from lists of names to be submitted by governors of states as well as cooperatives and other farm organizations.

The house bill differs also from the senate measure in that it does not exempt beef and beef products from the operation.

To carry out the loan-to-cooperatives proposal the bill would authorize an appropriation of $400,000. This would be known as the revolving fund, and its use would be controlled by the federal farm board the bill would create.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—(AP)—The senate today received the farm relief bill passed yesterday by the house and ordered it sent to conference for adjustment of differences between the senate and house.

Three Additional Smallpox Cases

Two new cases of smallpox were reported Friday morning and one Thursday afternoon, while one house was released from quarantine, according to Dr. Will R. Sneed, city health officer.

The average number of cases has been around 28 for the past week or more, showing no alarming increase in the number of cases, and the situation is thought to be well in hand by Dr. Sneed.

Vaccination is taking a heavy toll among both children and adults, many of them are confined to beds with high fevers, and very sore arms.

BUSINESS CHANGE ANNOUNCED FRIDAY IN AUTO INDUSTRY

Announcement was made Friday that E. W. Ellis & company, local Chevrolet dealers, had purchased the tire and battery business and service station of Harris and White 111-13-15 North Main street, and would operate the business under the name of Ellis Tire & Battery company, it being a subsidiary of E. W. Ellis & company. The used car department of E. W. Ellis & company will also be located at the Harris & White stand.

It was stated by Earl W. Ellis, president and manager of E. W. Ellis & company, that the business would be conducted as heretofore so far as the battery, tire and service station end of the plant was concerned and would be under the management of Fred L. Gilliam, who has been assistant manager of E. W. Ellis & company for some time. Mr. Ellis will be general supervising head of both businesses.

The buildings will be remodeled and improved and the building next to the alley will be used as the used car show room of E. W. Ellis & company, the business heretofore being conducted on East Fifth avenue being closed. C. W. Ogden will be manager of the used car department and it was stated that the company slogan of "Used Cars with an O. K. that Counts," would still be stressed. Reconditioned used cars of the firm will be displayed in this part of the building, while the other two buildings included in the place of business will be devoted to tire and battery service, while the service station end will also be continued, it was stated.

Messrs. Harris & White established their business in a small way in the year 1913 and have moved forward progressively since that time, expanding with the passing years until they occupied three large buildings. They are progressive and reliable and retire with the good will of a large number of customers who they are commending to the new owners. The consideration involved, it was stated by E. B. Harris Friday morning, was between $20,000 and $25,000. The former proprietors have not as yet made any plans for the future, it was stated.

FIRST TRIAL OF METHODIST BISHOP UNDER WAY TODAY

KANSAS CITY, May 5.—(AP)—The first trial of a Methodist bishop before an ecclesiastical court was under way here today with the presiding bishop of the tribunal named in a complaint charging violation of church dogma and discipline.

Shortly after the personnel of the court selected to try Bishop Anton Bast of Copenhagen, on charges of imprudent conduct unbecoming a minister, was confirmed at the quadrennial general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church here yesterday, the complaint was filed against Bishop Francis J. McConnell of Pittsburgh who is presiding at the Danish prelate's trial.

The complaint, entered by the Rev. George A. Cooke of Wilmington, Del., took exception to the manner in which Bishop McConnell conducted an annual conference at Wilmington March last, and to his alleged approval of the teachings of the theory of evolution. The Pittsburgh bishop was quoted on evolution in a pamphlet issued by the American Civil Liberties in January, 1927.

Mr. Cooke charged that Bishop McConnell's stand on evolution was "in repudiation of his vows as a minister and in violation of the laws of the church which uphold the Bible as the inspired word of Divine truth."

In charging unlawful conduct of the Wilmington conference, Mr. Cooks claimed that Bishop McConnell had certified to the correctness of the conference, knowing that part of the proceedings had been suppressed. The complaint set forth that charges had been brought against two former ministers at Wilmington for alleged violation of church rules regarding remarriage after divorce, and that the two ministers were given pastorates in violation of church laws.

Dr. R. J. Wade, conference secretary, with whom Mr. Cooke entered the complaint, said the allegations were not a matter for trial but "simply the complaint of a minister against his bishop which will be referred to the Episcopal committee." This committee deals with matters of discipline.

The 17 ministers comprising the court hearing the case of Bishop Bast last night went into executive session. It was understood that witnesses would be called in an exhaustive investigation of events leading up to the conviction of the bishop by a Danish civil court in 1926 on charges of misuse of charity funds, and his subsequent suspension by the church.

SOUTHWEST COTTON CROP OUTLOOK NOT GOOD AT PRESENT

DALLAS, May 5.—(AP)—The outlook for the cotton crop in the southwest is not as favorable as it was several weeks ago when conditions were exceptionally good, the car service division of the American Railway association said today in its business and crop review of the southwest for the last half of April.

"The fear that many thousands of acres of cotton in central sections would have to be replanted on account of the killing frosts of two weeks ago has been realized and the scarcity of suitable seed has added to the discouragement of the producers," the report said.

"The lack of moisture in western and northwestern Texas has also become a source of considerable anxiety on the part of growers in those districts. Summing up the situation as a whole, the prospect offers little probability that production this year will exceed that of last year."

COURTHOUSE NEWS.

The two cases scheduled to be tried against G. R. Benefild for the alleged violation of the prohibition laws in the district court Friday morning were passed by the court until Wednesday, May 9. The state announced ready in both cases but the defendant is in a local hospital where he was reported to have undergone an operation a few days ago for kidney ailment.

The jury for the week was finally discharged by District Judge Hawkins Scarborough Friday morning.

The jury in the case of the State of Texas vs. Mose Swanson, charged with possession and transportation of liquor, returned a verdict early Friday morning finding the defendant guilty and assessing his punishment at one year in the penitentiary. The defendant plead not guilty. The case was finished and given to the jury late Thursday afternoon. It was alleged that the accused was arrested in November by Deputy Sheriffs Rufus Devenhouse and Jess Speed in connection with the finding of twelve one-half gallons jars of liquor.

Attorneys for the defendant indicated that the case would be appealed.

SENATOR WALSH WITHDRAWS FROM PRESIDENT RACE

SAYS PRIMARY RESULTS DECISIVELY INDICATE SMITH IS CHOICE

WASHINGTON, May 4.—(AP)—Senator Walsh of Montana today formally withdrew his candidacy for the democratic presidential nomination.

Writing to one of his chief supporters, W. W. McDowell, the Montana senator said the result of the primary in California "quite clearly indicates that the democrats desire Gov. Al Smith as their candidate."

"So decisive is it," the letter added, "following like action in states that might be expected to send delegates to the convention out of harmony with his candidacy as to demonstrate to my mind the futility of advancing the claims of any other to party leadership in the ensuing campaign.'

The Montanan also wrote McDowell, a former governor of his state, that he would have to request that no further effort be made "in our state or elsewhere to promote my nomination."

"The result of the primary of Tuesday in California quite clearly indicates that the Democrats desire Gov. Smith as their candidate. So decisive it it, following like action in states that might be expected to send delegates to the convention out of harmony with his candidacy as to demonstrate to my mind the futility of advancing the claims of any other to party leadership in the ensuing campaign. Whatever hopes might have been indulged that in certain contingencies the Houston convention might deem it wise to make me its nominee, they can no longer reasonably be entertain.

"While profoundly appreciative of the cordial manner in which my candidacy was dealt with at the late meeting of the State Central committee, I am impelled by the logic of events to request that no other effort be made in our state or elsewhere to promote my nomination by the election of delegates favorably disposed or by any other means."

Before the letter was made public, Senator Walsh received a visit from William G. McAdoo, who had promoted the senator's candidacy in the California primary and who had run at the head of the list of Walsh delegates.

STRONG RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY SESSION KANSAS CITY FRIDAY

KANSAS CITY, May 4.—(AP)—A demand that the national conventions of each of the political parties write into their platforms a plank committing the party and its candidates "to the strict enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment and the national prohibition law" was contained in a resolution adopted here today at the Quadrennial General conference of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The resolution, introduced by Ernest S. Cherrington, executive secretary of the Anti-Saloon League of American, provided for the appointment by the Board of Bishops of five of its own members as a committee personally to present the resolution to the platform committee of each party.

"The church," the resolution said, "will not be lulled into silence by evasive answers or vague promises from the major political parties."

C. C. Selecman, president of Southern Methodist university, Dallas, brought the conference delegates to their feet in an outburst of enthusiasm when he declared:

"If a certain man whom you all know, and whom I need not mention, is nominated for president, the solid South will be only a memory. It emphatically will not support any presidential candidate who will not support prohibition.

"The Methodist Episcopal church and the Methodist Episcopal church South, may not be able to unite ecclesiastically but it certainly will unite in the defense of the American constitution and the flag.'

E. B. DeJarnett of Kerens, justice of the peace, was a business visitor in Corsicana Friday.

OWSLEY LAUDS TEXAS PIONEERS AT THROCKMORTON

THROCKMORTON, May 4.—(AP)—Tribute to Texas' favorite sons who worked for the advancement of railroad building and allied industries was paid in an address prepared for delivery here today by Alvin Owsley of Dallas, in the celebration marking the entrance of the first train into Throckmorton.

The extension was made by the Cisco & Northeastern, a subsidiary of the Texas & Pacific.

"It seems only yesterday," Mr. Owsley said, "that Texas was required to give millions of acres of her fertile lands to the builders of railroads in order to get the lines built. Now the towns and cities already having been established are inviting sources of revenue and really become partners in the enterprise of railroad building in this great empire of Texas."

Mr. Owsley then lauded the names of Kemp, Kell, Yoakum and Lee, which "will be found in letters of gold when the proud history of our great state is written."

NORFLEET TAKES WARPATH AGAINST SWINDLERS AGAIN

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 5.—(AP)—J. Frank Norfleet, Hale Center, Texas, rancher, deputy sheriff and Nemesis of bunko men, says he has added another scalp to his already long string.

Last night, in company with Harvey Johnson, formerly his neighbor in Hale Center, but now a student at the University of Southern California, Norfleet arrested A. J. Sherrard, said to be wanted in Amarillo on a swindling charge. Norfleet said he would appeal to Governor Young for extradition papers today to take his prisoner back to the Texas city for trial.

Norfleet's interest in confidence men developed in 1919 when a band of international swindlers headed by Joe Furey, mulcted him out of $40,000. Norfleet swore vengeance and started out after his men. He traveled all over the country from Pacific to Atlantic coasts, and finally managed to get his quarry, including Furey, who died in a Texas penitentiary in 1922.

With the arrest of Sherrard, Nofleet has in his career as a detective, captured 79 men, of whom 76 have been convicted.

He had been trailing his present prisoner for a week and captured him through the latter's fondness for a young woman.

AMARILLO, May 5.—(AP)—A. J. Sherrard, held in Los Angeles by J. Frank Norfleet, Hale Center, Texas, rancher-detective, is wanted in Amarillo on a charge of swindling in connection with an alleged fraudulent property deal a year ago. He was indicted some time ago.

According to District Attorney W. J. Flesher, requisition has been made by Gov. Dan Moody of Texas for Sherrard's extradition.

UNINSTRUCTED FOR CANDIDATES, FAVOR PRO ENFORCEMENT

PRECINCT CONVENTIONS HELD IN CORSICANA WARDS SATURDAY NIGHT

The Corsicana delegation to the ounty convention Tuesday goes ninstructed as to candidates but nstructed to favor a strong proibition plank and the enforceent of the eighteenth amendent in keeping with the fight hat Gov. Dan Moody has been aking for an uninstructed deleation so far as candidates are oncerned.

The pledge was enforced in all ity conventions with the excepion of Ward 2 where the chairan merely stated that all particiating in the convention must be emocrats.

In Ward 3, and 4 resolutions ere adopted calling for the deleates to vote as a unit, to favor e enforcement of the Eighteenth mendment and unfavorable to ndidates not in sympathy with e resolutions adopted.

Indications are that most of the elegates from the outlying preincts will go to the county conention uninstructed.

Following is a report of the four recinct conventions held in Corcana Saturday night:

Ward No. 1.

W. F. Morris was elected delete and J. W. Wright, alternate the county democratic convenon to be held May 8, at the preinct convention held in Precinct o. 1, Saturday night.

The delegate was uninstructed; o resolution of any kind was preared or presented.

We believe that participation in party affairs carries with it an obligation of loyalty to the party, and it is the sense of this convention that all persons actually participating in same shall support the nominees of the party in the coming national general election, for President and Vice-President of the United States.

5th. That the delegates chosen by this convention to attend the county convention be, and they are hereby instructed to support and vote for these resolutions in the county convention.

We renew our faith in, and allegiance to, the great principles of the Democratic party announced by its founder, Thomas Jefferson; exemplified and made effective by the courageous and heroic acts of Andrew Jackson, and perpetuated and made manifest in the unimpeachable and statesman-like administration of Woodrow Wilson.

Respectfully submitted,
LAWRENCE TREADWELL,
Chairman.

The following delegates were named: J. H. Woods, Jim Jackson, H. A. Clowe, John T. Fortson, H. D. Fillers, G. E. Mitchell, C. L. Knox, Mrs. W. H. Jack, Mrs. E. S. McGee, Mrs. Geo. T. Jester, E. E. Babers, W. M. Peck, Mrs. J. T. Newson, C. C. Roberts, Elbert Williams, S. M. Kerr, L. Treadwell, S. J. Jackson, A. A. Allison, O. L. Albritton, Mrs. R. A. Caldwell, Mrs. John T. Fortson, Mrs. A. E. Haslam, J. S. Millerman.

When the resolutions committee reported C. W. Taylor offered three amendments which were voted down as a whole but later his first amendment was adopted, which appears on the resolutions in the final paragraph.

The two other amendments which were voted down as offered by Mr. Taylor, follow:

We demand that the legislative and executive branches of the government refuse to rebate all or any part of the debt due the United States by any foreign country; and that such debts and all of them be collected in cash without delay.

We deplose the persistent efforts being put forth to secure the enactment of laws by the federal congress seeking to permit the sale of intoxicating beverages in the form of light wines and beer, and we charge that those advocating such measures are not actuated by patriotic motives, well knowing that such laws if enacted would be violative of the constitution of the United States, which reads:

"The manufacture, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes is hereby prohibited."

In the course of the meeting the chair recognized A. A. Allison, C. H. Mills, W. M. Taylor, Mrs. S. H. Jack, Judge Rufus Hardy, H. E. Traylor, J. H. Woods, Sam Kerr, Frank Kerr and others.

Ward No. 4.

Twelve delegates and twelve alternates to the county convention were named at the precinct convention of Democratic voters of Ward 4 at the chamber of commerce Saturday evening. The delegates were instructed to vote as a unit at the county convention to support prohibition, and to instruct the delegates to the state convention to support the party nominee.

C. R. Terry, precinct chairman, presided at the meeting, and announced that the same test had been used in former years had been adopted by the state committee this year. All of the voters agreed to sign the pledge.

When the house was opened for nominations for a temporary secretary, the question of qualified voters was raised, but it was agreed by the convention to leave it to the honor of those present not to take part in the convention if they were not qualified voters. Mrs. Mabel Boltz was elected temporary secretary.

C. L. Jester made a motion that a committee of three be named by the chair to select the nominees for delegates; C. S. Wood offered a substitute motion that the committee be selected from the floor. W. A. Tarver's motion to table the substitute was lost, and the convention decided to name the committee from the floor.

H. B. Bomar placed in nomination John C. Hughes, C. S. Wood and Mrs. Sam Spikes. P. C. Townsend nominated an opposition slate composed of El J. Gibson, T. W. Lovett and W. A. Tarver. Hughes, Wood, and Mrs. Spikes were elected.

A resolutions committee composed of Wayne Howell, W. P. McCammon, W. M. Wilson, Mrs. J. W. Still and Fred White was nominated, and with the substitution of F. P. McElwrath for Howell, was elected.

The nominating committee made its report after a very brief deliberation and the report was adopted with almost no opposition. Those elected were:

Delegates—T. J. Walton, W. M. Wilson, Fred White, Mrs. Mabel Boltz, C. C. Walton, W. P. McCammon, C. G. Davidson, C. C. Albritton, Joe Simpkins, Will Thompson, L. E. McCormick, W. T. Parker.

Alternates— William Clarkson, Jr., W. J. Rochelle, J. N. Royall, D. P. Smith, Ben Blackmon, Mrs. John C. Hughes, J. W. Still, O. L. Smith, T. R. Womack, Bob Galloway, W. T. Hipps and P. O. Smith.

The report of the resolutions committee was read by Fred White. An attempt to change the fifth paragraph by eliminating all names except that of Gov. Dan Moody, made by W. A. Tarver, was defeated. P. C. Townsend attempted to further amend the motion by eliminating all the names, but the attempt died for want of a second. The resolutions were finally adopted as read.

The resolutions follow:

1. We denounce the Republican party for bribery, graft and corruption in high office, which has characterized and condemned its administration during the last eight years; for corruption in election of members of the United States Senate; for its receipt of dishonorable money used in electing a president of the United States.

2. We favor a plank in the national Democratic platform to be adopted at Houston, Texas, unequivocally indorsing prohibition as written into the constitution of the United States and declaring relentless opposition to any attempt to repeal it or destroy the prohibition laws. Demanding the faithful, strict and efficient enforcement by the national government of this and all laws, including the eighteenth amendment, and advocating adequate means of enforcement. We instruct our delegates to vote for resolutions favoring such a plank.

3. We favor the State Democratic convention at Beaumont instructing the delegation to the national Democratic convention to vote as a unit at all times and upon all questions and for candidates for president and vice president who each favor and support the foregoing plank.

4. We believe that an absolute obligation of party loyalty arises from participation in party affairs and we appeal to all Democrats to recognize this principle and remain loyal to the party and unite to sweep corruption out of the National Capitol at Washington, and it is the sense of this convention that all persons participating in same shall support the nominees of the party in the coming general election.

5. Be it resolved, that all delegates to the county convention from this precinct are instructed to cast their vote as a unit for a resolution instructing the delegates from this county to the state convention to cast their vote as a unit for Gov. Dan Moody, Tom Love, Tom Ball, Cone Johnson, as delegates at large to the national convention.

6. That the delegates chosen by this convention to attend the county convention be, and they are hereby instructed to support and vote for these resolutions in the county convention.

ANGLO EGYPTIAN TROUBLE SOLVED

The friendly tone of the note in which Premier Nahas Pasha, right, replied to the demands of Great Britain that the public meeting bill be withdrawn from the Egyptian legislature, is thought to have avoided an open rupture between the countries. Sir Austen Chamberlain, left, was one of the leaders in England who insisted upon England's right to interfere in Egyptian legislation.

SHREVEPORT CANNOT BUILD.

NEW ORLEANS, May 7 —(AP)— Shreveport was denied the right to build a municipal auditorium on a public square in a decision handed down by the state supreme court here today.

Upholding the decision of a lower court the supreme court held that the terms under which Shreveport was given the park more than 65 years ago prevented its being used for any other purpose.
